

United States Still Holds Lead In Atomic Weapons

Washington, Sept. 24 (AP)—The United States still holds a vast lead over Russia in the field of atomic weapons and in all probability will never lose it, top American officials said today.

"They'll never catch up with us," said one high security official in the wake of President Truman's disclosure yesterday that there has been an atomic explosion in Russia.

While it was calmly worded, the President's statement itself exploded throughout the western world with terrific impact.

It brought urgent—and hopeful—new demands from lawmakers, scientists, diplomats and others for effective international atom controls—a demand which merely echoed Mr. Truman's own words.

It caused a general withering of congressional opposition to sharing American atomic secrets with Britain and Canada.

And it raised questions enough to keep the world guessing for months.

How did the news reach this country? One official who knew said "hundreds of persons" and numerous agencies were involved. Another said it was a "miracle of intelligence."

But whether it involved spies, ground equipment, or airborne radiation-detecting instruments—or all three—one would say for sure.

Was it definitely an atomic bomb, or just an accidental explosion? A bomb, absolutely, experts said—and, apparently, the Soviets' first successful one.

But when and where the explosion occurred, how efficient the Russian bomb may be, and what effect it might have on future relations between the east and the west—those questions and dozens of others went unanswered except for hints and guesses.

The President said the explosion occurred "in recent weeks."

Scientists in Sweden reported picking up an earth tremor Sept. 14 which they said might have been an A-bomb blast in Siberia. But the New York Daily News said in a Rome dispatch that western officials have known about the Russian bomb for at least nine weeks.

An American official hinted that Mr. Truman knew about it for several days, at least.

Also from Rome, Pietro Nenni, pro-Communist leader of the Italian Socialist party, said the bomb was touched off in eastern

Hungarian Tito Plotters To Die

Sentences Given Out In Treason Case

By ENDRE MARTON

Budapest, Hungary, Sept. 24 (AP)—A people's court today sentenced Laszlo Rajk, former No. 2 Communist, and two of his seven co-defendants to die for plotting to supplant Hungary's government by a regime obedient to Yugoslav Marshal Tito.

Two other defendants were sentenced to life imprisonment and another to nine years.

But the court passed no sentence on the other two defendants—Lieut. Gen. Gyorgy Palffy, former chief of the Hungarian army, and Bela Korondy, colonel of police. The court said it was not competent to deal with them and they were held for court martial.

Sentenced with Rajk to die were Dr. Tibor Szoenyi, former member of parliament and a Communist party official, and Andras Szalai, another party official.

Life sentences were imposed on Lajos Rankov, counselor of the Yugoslav embassy, and Pal Justus, a member of parliament and president of the Hungarian radio.

Milan Ognjenovic, a confessed Yugoslav professional spy, was sentenced to nine years' imprisonment.

The indictment against Rajk, former foreign minister and interior minister, accused him of working with an American spy ring and plotting with Tito to bring about the downfall of the Budapest government.

Nationalists Claim Victories At Amoy, Southeast China Port

By SPENCER MOOSA

Canton, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists today claimed two victories in the battle for Amoy, the southeast China port.

Official reports said 10,000 Communist troops were wiped out in an attempt to capture Tien Ma, or Heaven Horse mountain, on the mainland opposite Amoy.

(The Nationalists never are modest in assessing Red losses.)

The Nationalists also said they made an amphibious assault on the mainland southwest of Amoy and annihilated 3,000 other Reds.

Amoy, the best port left to the Nationalists, is on an island. It is about 140 miles across the Formosa Strait from Formosa, a Nationalist fortress.

Inflation Is Newest Threat In England

Llandudno, Wales, Sept. 24 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee today told Britons that inflation threatens to wipe out the benefits of cheapening the pound.

"There is no occasion for general price increases," he declared. "It is the duty of every good citizen to cooperate with the government in preventing inflation."

Stalin Has 4 Huge Atomic Energy Plants

Exclusive Dispatch Discloses Secrets

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following dispatch from NEA's roving European correspondent gives hitherto undisclosed details of Russia's atomic energy plants. Dennen, who has just arrived in New York from Europe for a short visit, wrote this dispatch after reading President Truman's announcement that an atomic explosion had occurred in Russia.)

BY LEON DENNEN

NEA Special Correspondent
New York. (NEA)—Russia is working on atomic energy projects in at least four huge plants, known as "atomic fortresses," according to information given me by an escaped Soviet industrial official.

In these areas are concentrated the efforts of hundreds of forced laborers. Latest information from spies in the United States, Canada and Great Britain, and the findings of Frederic Joliot-Curie, French Atomic Energy commissioner and high-ranking Communist, are communicated quickly to these centers, according to my informant.

I am able to state from personal knowledge that United States intelligence authorities have knowledge of the fortress locations. They consist of complicated plants surrounded by hundreds of miles of no-man's land, patrolled by the MVD security police.

Information is lacking as to the location of the atomic blast inside Russia, which was announced by President Truman, but it could have taken place at any one of the following experimental centers:

At Sukhum, in southern Transcaucasia, on the Black Sea. (My informant said he worked in the construction of an atomic fortress at Sukhum as far back as September, 1939, at the time of the invasion of Poland.)

In the Central Asian desert of Kara-Kum, south of Lake Aral, in Turkmenistan, and in the southern zone of the Urals. This fortress is not far from the border of

Pistol Whipper Sent To Prison

Buxom Nurse Beaten At Columbia, S. C.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 24 (AP)—A minimum prison term of six and one-half years faces a former University of South Carolina professor who pistol-whipped a nurse.

Ann B. Pierce suffered "the most severe beating I ever heard of being inflicted upon a woman," Circuit Judge T. B. Greener observed yesterday.

Then he sentenced her to six months in jail for the beating. She was charged with intent to kill.

The first sentence will be suspended after six and one-half years; the other after five years. Maxey could have been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Maxey was convicted Saturday of beating Miss Pierce in a fit of jealousy Aug. 3. He said he regarded her as his common law wife, and thought she had discarded him for another man.

Maxey's wife, who he left soon after meeting the buxom 35-year-old nurse, stuck by him through the four-day trial. She wept when sentence was passed.

Maxey and Miss Pierce testified that they shared hotel rooms at Beach and Mountain resorts and that he photographed her in the nude.

He served a federal sentence about five years ago for mailing nude photographs of a girl he wooed in Tennessee.

Family Badly Burned In Soo Cabin Blast

Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 24 (AP)—A Clare, Michigan couple and their two children suffered serious burns early today in a cabin explosion near here.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warner and their children, Stephen, 5, and Judy, 3.

The explosion is believed to have occurred as Mrs. Warner was about to light a gas heater in the cabin about 6:10 a. m. today. The family is in the War Memorial hospital in the Sault being treated for burns.

Vets Avoid Robeson

Detroit, Sept. 24 (AP)—Department Commander Jerry Barr of the American Legion wants Legionnaires to stay away from the Paul Robeson appearance here Oct. 9.

He urged post commanders Friday "to see that no Legionnaires are in attendance or even in the vicinity of the meeting."

Soviet Big Five Peace Proposal Proves Dud

UNITED NATIONS' HOME TAKES SHAPE—On the east side of Manhattan, the modern skyscraper that will be the UN Secretariat building begins to assume its final shape. This picture was taken by a UN neighbor, James Rath, who is keeping a record of the growth of the building by photographs made from the fire escape of his First Avenue apartment. That's Mrs. Rath doing the knitting.

Farmers Don't Like Federal Handouts, G. O. P. Leaders Find

By OVID A. MARTIN

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 24 (AP)—National Republican leaders expressed confidence today that direct government farm subsidies offer them an issue with which to win the Midwest farm vote from the Democrats.

This confidence was voiced by Senator Mundt of South Dakota and Rep. Hope of Kansas after listening to a parade of farmer speakers before the GOP's two-day farm conference. The meeting ends today.

The conference was called to get an idea of what kind of farm program the Republicans should sponsor if they wished to stage a midwestern victory march in next year's congressional elections.

Almost without exception, farmers who appeared before a committee of Congressmen and representatives of the party's national committee said they were against what they variously described as government "handouts," "doles," and "checks" as substitutes for a fair market price.

Several referred specifically to the Brannan Plan which President Truman has indicated he will make an issue in the 1950 campaigns. That plan proposes broad use of subsidies to achieve a dual goal of cheaper food for consumers and a high level of income for farmers. The gap between low-priced farm products and high farm income would be bridged by government payments to producers.

Several farmer spokesmen advocated a self-financing program under which they themselves would foot the bill for selling surpluses abroad and to low-income groups at home at cut-rate prices.

(Shanghai said the new "republic" would be made up of laborers—who will be the leaders—farmers, the middle class and capitalists.)

Tung Pi-wu, chairman of the conference, said the highest governing authority would be vested in "the people's representative assembly" (or congress), which will be elected by popular vote.

The assembly, meeting at specified intervals, will elect the members of the "peoples government." They in turn will form the "central peoples committee."

(This "committee," by implication, will be the actual ruler of Communist China. The dispatch said the committee would be similar to the Russian politburo.)

Black Panther Scare Rouses Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Sept. 24 (AP)—A black panther may have prowled the streets of South Indianapolis last night. Police aren't sure.

Armed officers combed the area where several residents reported seeing the silky maunder. But the big cat, if it was there, stayed beyond the eyes of his pursuers.

Indianapolis radio stations related police appeals for persons to stay indoors. Strollers were asked to return to their homes.

The woman who first told police of seeing the cat also said she had seen a truck belonging to the Cole Brothers' circus nearby. A police check showed the circus now is playing at Liberal, Kas.

Coal Dumped By Pickets In Mine Walkout

Pittsburgh, Sept. 24 (AP)—The United Mine Worker's "no day work week" today kept the nation's 480,000 miners idle for the sixth day.

Indications were the latest mine walkout would be a long one. Already 30,000 workers in coal-carrying railroads have been laid off.

United Mine Workers' Chief-tain John L. Lewis has no contact negotiations scheduled with the northern and western operators until September 29.

The current walkout—a protest against suspension of pension and welfare fund benefits—is all a part of the protracted UMW contract dispute.

The mine contract ran out last June 30. But the miners ditched their traditional "no contract no work" policy to work a three-day week during negotiations.

Then some southern operators stopped paying the 20-cent-a-ton royalty payments into the union welfare fund. They said they didn't have to pay the money because there was no contract.

The fund was getting low. The trustees of the fund suspended all benefits, including pensions to aged and disabled miners, last Saturday night.

Lewis Coins One

The miners did not go to work Monday. Their new cry was "no pension no work."

Lewis himself coined the expression "no day work week" to describe the current stoppage.

The only coal mined this week was by 15,000 members of the independent progressive mine workers in Illinois and some non-union strip miners.

Some strip operations were curtailed by roving bands of pickets who traveled in motorcades through coal areas, dumping trucks and damaging equipment.

Heavy rains yesterday kept picketing activity to a minimum in Pennsylvania but some mine violence flared near Charleston, W. Va. Wesley Walker, owner of a non-union mine, reported about 175 roving pickets closed several mines in the nearby Tappan Creek area.

Walker said eight truckloads of coal were dumped by the pickets who declared they "would be back Monday."

Daughter Kills Cancer Victim

Suffering Of Father Ended In Hospital

Stanford, Conn., Sept. 24 (AP)—A police sergeant died today in his hospital bed after being shot by his 20-year-old daughter because he was hopelessly ill with cancer.

"She didn't want to see him suffer," said Police Chief John B. Brennan.

Sgt. Carl Paught, 50, died at Stamford hospital of a head wound. Brennan said the daughter, Carol, shot her father with his own service revolver yesterday a few hours after she learned his case was inoperable.

No one in the hospital heard the shot. Leroy Brown, hospital superintendent, said the girl had been left alone with her father when a nurse's aide left the room.

When the aide returned, Brown said, she found Miss Paught standing in the hallway sobbing, "please look at my father! Please look at my father!"

The aide found Paught unconscious on his blood-stained bed. The girl collapsed in hysteria after the shooting and was put to bed in the hospital, not far from her father's room. A police guard watched at her bedside.

Blaze Routs 16 Ann Arbor Coeds

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 24 (AP)—Sixteen University of Michigan coeds last night were routed from their league house by a fire which completely burned out the kitchen, living room and dining room.

They were quartered temporarily in other league houses—residences officially approved by the university.

The blaze caused only smoke damage on the second floor of the home, known as Hollis house. It is thought to have been caused by a match thrown in a wastepaper basket.

Plan Labeled Propaganda By U. N. Delegates

Mention Of Atomic Explosion Ignored

BY A. I. GOLDBERG

New York, Sept. 24 (AP)—Russia's proposal for a Big Five peace pact left most United Nations leaders cold today. A U.S. delegate labelled it propaganda.

Many delegates obviously were disappointed that Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky's speech on the floor yesterday ignored any reference to President Truman's earlier disclosures about an "atomic explosion" in Russia. They felt Vishinsky's talk turned out to be little more than an anticlimax to the big news of the day.

Some showed open skepticism in the face of Vishinsky's accusations that the U. S. and Britain were fomenting war with an armaments race and propaganda. He coupled these with talks of peace.

Speech Toned Down
Others shrugged off comment until they could weigh Vishinsky's words—mostly familiar but milder than his past comments.

The propaganda label came from U. S. Delegate Warren Austin who has sat in the United Nations through many sessions, hearing similar Russian charges.

Austin's statement recalled that Gen. George C. Marshall, faced by the same kind of Russian words when he was secretary of state a year ago, called them "a propaganda peace offensive."

Austin remarked "it is the same propaganda as before." He said he needed more information and time to study.

France's Foreign Minister Robert Schuman also promised to study the pact offer, but indicated he thought that the harsh things Vishinsky said about the United States, Britain and China in leading up to his proposal were not

Dickers Recessed Over Weekend In Steel Wrangle

Pittsburgh, Sept. 24 (AP)—Contract talks aimed at bringing labor peace to the strike jittery steel industry today were in recess for the weekend.

On Monday the nation's leading steel companies and the CIO United Steelworkers will try again to thrash out their differences.

They will have five days remaining of the six day steel truce in which, to avert a nation-wide shutdown of the vital steel industry, the new strike deadline—the third since July—is midnight October 1.

Five of the biggest steel producers are engaged in the current wage talks.

The conference getting the most attention is that between the giant United States Steel corporation and the steelworkers in Pittsburgh.

"Big steel" usually sets the contract pattern for not only steel but all the nation's industries.

Lightning Kills Two

Du Bois, Pa., Sept. 24 (AP)—A bolt of lightning crashed into a group of children playing in a grade school yard during the noon lunch recess. Two were killed and four were stunned by the bolt.

The victims were Jimmy Proske, 11, and John Hillard, 11. The bolt struck following a heavy rainstorm.

Munising Boy Dies Of Polio

Dale Perreault, 3, Ill Two Days

Munising, Mich., Sept. 24—Dale C. Perreault, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Perreault of 109 Elm avenue, died at 7 a. m. today in St. Luke's hospital at Marquette. He had been ill for the past two days with polio.

His case brought the total number of polio cases reported in the Upper Peninsula so far this year to 51, of which at least four were fatal. Two of the deaths were Chippewa county cases, and one was from Mackinac county.

The boy was born July 7, 1946. The body has been removed to the Beaulieu funeral home, and tonight will be taken to Hubbell. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. Burial will be made in Mount Calvary cemetery at Lake Linden.

Alcona county had one reported polio case prior to the death of the Perreault boy.

Chippewa county has had the largest number of polio cases in the Upper Peninsula, a total of 19. Menominee is second with 10, and three counties—Baraga, Luce and Schoolcraft—have had none reported so far this year.

Mrs. Cal Pillotte Funeral Services Monday Morning

Funeral services for Mrs. Mae Pillotte, wife of Cal A. Pillotte, 323 North 20th street, who died yesterday in St. Francis hospital, will be held Monday morning at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph's church with burial in Holy Cross cemetery. Father Patrick McArron, O. F. M., will offer the funeral mass.

The body is at the Alto funeral home where friends may call beginning at 8 tonight. The rosary will be recited Sunday evening at 8.

Mrs. Pillotte, who had been ill for the past year suffering from cancer, was 58 years old. She was born in Fayette May 10, 1891 and was a life long resident of Delta county. She formerly lived in Gladstone and had made her home in Escanaba since 1926. Her marriage to Mr. Pillotte took place at All Saints' church in Gladstone October 26, 1922.

She was a member of St. Joseph's church, Trinity Circle, and the American Legion Auxiliary. Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Arthur (Norma) Erickson and Mrs. John (Dolores) Bamek of Chicago, one son, Donald Wolfe of Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill., seven grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: Louis, Henry and Joseph Burroughs, Salt Lake City, Roy Burroughs, Gladstone, Mrs. R. J. Gamble, Gladstone and Mrs. A. E. Wilcox, Rochester, Mich.

Vehicle Code Becomes Effective On Friday

State departments charged with administration and enforcement of the motor vehicle laws, the state legislature, and the highway users groups, in a cooperative effort to improve Michigan's laws relating to ownership and use of automobiles and trucks, motorcycles, motor scooters and bicycles, developed the new Michigan vehicle code which became effective Sept. 22.

The new code is Act 300 of the Public Acts of 1949 and follows in pattern a uniform code developed for basic use of all states by nationally recognized authorities on the subject of motor vehicle and highway use.

To bring Michigan's laws up to the standards of the national recommendations, a number of amendments to existing laws were incorporated in the new code, and Fred M. Alger, Jr., Secretary of State, has summarized below the more important features of the Code that affect or are of interest to the motoring public.

Must Report Sale
Every change of address by an automobile owner must be sent to the secretary of state.

Whenever a motor vehicle is sold, the seller must notify the secretary of state of the date of sale and to whom the vehicle was sold.

The date of transfer of title to a motor vehicle establishes the date of change of ownership and relieves the transferor from liability for any damages resulting from negligent operation of such vehicle by another person.

A motorist involved in a collision with a parked car must notify the owner of the struck car, if possible. If the owner cannot be located, the nearest police officer must be notified.

If a motorist is involved in an accident resulting in damage to fixtures legally upon or adjacent to a highway, such as road markers or bridges, he must immediately notify the person in charge of such property, or, if this is impossible, he must notify the nearest police officer.

Driving off the main traveled portion of a highway when passing on the right is made unlawful.

Emergency vehicles, such as ambulances, police and fire vehicles, must be equipped with a flashing red light and a siren. The present law only provides that an emergency vehicle shall have a siren, and the change is to provide a positive warning of the approach of such a vehicle.

Motor scooters must be licensed and titled the same as motor bikes and motor cars and trucks.

Scooters and motor bikes must be equipped with a head lamp or lamps of sufficient power to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of 100 feet at 25 miles or less per hour; 200 feet between 25 and 35 miles per hour, and 300 feet if driven faster than 35 miles per hour. Other required equipment includes a red tail lamp and white illumination of rear license plate, a horn, muffler and brake.

The former heavy penalties remain effective for driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicating liquor, narcotic drug, barbitol or any derivative of barbitol, but the occupancy of a motor vehicle by a person under the influence of such liquors or drugs does not constitute a violation of the New Motor Vehicle Code unless the occupant is actually observed driving.

Any person who in any manner places glass, nails, cans, rubbish or other material likely to injure any person, animal or vehicle on a highway must immediately remove same from the roadway. The present law provides a penalty for placing such material on the highway and the new law provides a penalty for failure to remove same.

Whenever any windshield, window or ventilator glass is replaced, it shall be shatter proof. Present law makes no provision for replacements. This also makes it unlawful to replace a broken window with cardboard.

Sees New Era In Lumbering

Cut Out And Get Out Policy Has Ended

Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 24 — (Special)—Wood is likely to become the most important raw material of the future, because it is renewable, Nelson C. Brown, of the New York State College of Forestry, Syracuse, said in an address at the Lake States Logging Congress last evening.

"Forests and forest products industries are here to stay," said Brown. "They are indispensable in the life of our nation. They will increasingly become a heritage that we may all be proud of. No industry, in spite of shortcomings and failures, has so well reflected the history, traditions and spirit of America. No industry has made as great a contribution to our national welfare as the great American lumber industry."

Brown traced the history of the lumbering industry from the time the first sawmill began sawing out boards in New England in 1632. He dwelt particularly on the Lake States industry.

"The great prairies could scarcely have been developed and settled without the pine from the Lake States," Brown said. "Without a cheap material of construction, our farms, railroads, bridges and structures could not have been built."

Circular Saw in 1850

As far back as 1836 Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Detroit and other cities were having their building booms. Brown pointed out. The introduction of the circular saw about 1850 gave great impetus to lumber production. By 1870, railroads reached into northern Wisconsin and Michigan so that the timber of the driveable streams, notably the Saginaw, St. Croix and Wisconsin rivers, flowed out into the markets. For about 30 years Michigan led the entire nation in lumber production, from 1869 to 1898. Saginaw was then the lumber capital of the world.

Brown said that the lumber industry is undergoing great changes. The days of the huge sawmill cutting over a million feet a day are past except on the west coast. Difficulties of securing adequate labor and high costs have forced the mechanization of felling, bucking, loading and general woods operations.

Lumbering Families

The speaker paid tribute to the great lumbering families of the region, mentioning the Alger-Sullivan group in the early days of Michigan, the Stephensons of Marinette and Wells, the Wells of Menominee, Karl von Platen, M. J. Fox, of Iron Mountain; Holts of Oconto.

"Many know Robert B. Goodman who has put his 70,000 acre operation at Goodman, Wis., on a sustained yield basis," Brown said. "Mr. Goodman has been a leader in the movement for the sustained yield management of timber properties."

"Today our lumbermen are moving rapidly to meet the new challenge of growing and managing their timberlands just as they in overcoming the hazards and risks in getting out lumber that sold at $10 or so per thousand."

Depend on Regrowth

Brown said the old "cut out and get out" policy of lumbering

Finland Makes Ready For Olympic Games

By ESTHER TUFTY

Helsinki, Finland — Already everyone here is talking about the XV Olympic Games just around the 1952 corner.

The athletic Finns are busy getting ready. They have waited a long time to have the big international sports event "at home."

For the Finns to tackle the big job of playing host to thousands of visitors is no small task. It's a staggering challenge just to house the thousands of contestants, athletes, sports writers and guests in the wake of the most painful housing shortage the city has ever faced.

But the Finns thrive on doing the impossible. It isn't just the athletes who are Olympic-minded. The entire nation seems to be behind their officials, headed by the deputy mayor of Helsinki, Erki von Freneckell.

This man, a member of the International Olympic Committee, won this honor mainly by serving for 20 years as chairman of the board of the stadium fund. Today's beautiful modern stadium, with its spectacular tower, seats 60,000 spectators.

Almost completed is the big equestrian hall, the velodrome (10,000 seats), the swimming pool (surrounded by 10,000 seats), and the canoeing stadium.

Housing is Problem

The biggest headache for the officials is where to bed the foreign visitors. Helsinki has few hotels and fewer luxuries.

But at least the problem is solved for the 4000 expected competitors. An Olympic village for men contestants is almost completed near the stadium.

Women competitors will be accommodated in a village under construction for technical high school students situated 20 minutes distance by bus to the west from the Olympic stadium.

The Finns' attitude towards the Olympics has some of the same reverence they give their big sports hero, Paavo Nurmi. No one man but he has ever held all is gone forever. The nation's timber resources, he pointed out, are rapidly being renewed under the leadership of forward-looking lumbermen and the assistance of the U. S. Forest Service, American Forest Products Industries, Trees for Tomorrow, the Tree Farm movement, Keep American Green and other agencies.

"Regrowth now supplies 70 to 80 per cent of our forest products," Brown continued. "Even on the west coast, peckerwood, coffee pot and seaweed mills have come to stay. The woods are growing up and growing fast — much faster than some of the early foresters thought they could. Millions of dollars are now being invested in second growth forests considered of little value just a few years ago. Regrowth is the basis of the expanded forest economy of the Lake States."

the world distance running records at one time.

I interviewed this man whose name is the greatest of the great in Finnish sports.

Now middle-aged, but still trim of figure, we chatted over the necktie counter of his little haberdashery shop.

He's shy and difficult with strangers.

Yes, he's still running... "just to feel good"...

He doesn't like to talk about his past glories. His greatest period was during the Paris Olympic Games in 1924 at which he won, on the same day, the gold medals in 1500 and 5000 meters long distance running.

Never Ran His Best

His tragedy is that he never "ran his best," since his competition did not demand it. He has held all world records from 1500 meters to marathon.

A grateful Finnish government has awarded him the Grand Cross of the Finnish sports order.

Divorced, he lives a lonely quiet life on an island. Up north in Turku, his ex-wife and son live. His teen-age son runs too, "but nothing to talk about."

One of his favorite friends is the American minister, Avra Warren, who frequently goes fishing and hunting with him.

Who will be the Finnish No. 1 sports entry in 1952?

The best eye-catcher, at least, will be handsome Tapio Rautavaara, champion in the London Olympics of 1948 in the javelin throw. He's a romantic figure, especially when strumming a guitar. He's in the movies and will be hot news copy.

Finland is a sporting country and the Olympic athletes have always held the admiration of the whole nation. In order to send Finland's athletes to the Olympic Games even the poorest contribute; and at the time of the games, the whole nation breathlessly follows the progress of its team.

The returning teams have brought 80 gold, 73 silver, and 76 bronze medals.

So to capture the 15th Olympic Games is a dream come true.

Blood Program Successful Here

THE success of the blood donor program in Delta county this week provides assurance that an ample supply of plasma will be available from the state in the coming year so that no resident of the county will be required to pay for plasma administered in the local hospital. Assurance has been given that even if an emergency develops that would exhaust the supply allotted to Delta county on the basis of blood made available in the clinic collection of the past week, the state health department will provide all of the plasma required for local needs.

The results of the blood clinic here were most gratifying and in contrast to the poor response from Escanaba residents a year ago. Success of this year's program and assurance that no one in the county will have to pay for plasma in the next 12 months should guarantee continuance of the blood program in succeeding years.

Credit goes to all those who donated blood in the county and also to those who assisted in the program.

Plan Oil Tests In Marinette County

TEST drilling of county-owned land in Marinette county for oil exploration has been authorized by the county land committee and a lease on 10,000 acres for oil and gas rights has been granted to a Lower Michigan company.

The exploratory oil drilling in Marinette county is strictly a gamble as far as the Michigan company is concerned, although preliminary surveys by geologists must have provided reasonable hope that oil or gas would be developed in commercial quantities.

Similar oil tests have been conducted in various parts of the Upper Peninsula in the past without success, the latest being in Hiauwatha township of Schoolcraft county last before the war.

Even if oil or gas is not found in Marinette county by the Michigan wildcat drilling company, the county will have gained some valuable information regarding the geology of the area. The tests also may disclose the existence of valuable mineral resources in that area, information obtained without cost to the county.

Marinette county's neighbors will be watching with considerable interest the developments in oil test drilling in that county.

Steel Strike Is Delayed A Week

THE decision of the CIO United Steelworkers to postpone for another week a nationwide strike in the steel industry makes possible at least a temporary respite in the critical labor dispute situation. Also it opens the way for resumption of negotiations necessary to settle the issues involved in the dispute.

Even before a walkout actually develops in the steel industry, a gray market has sprung up in steel. The steel industry is a basic industry in this country and any tieup that halts the production of this vital commodity will surely quickly be felt throughout the country. For that reason alone it is imperative that this labor dispute be settled as quickly as possible and without a prolonged strike.

The main issue involves the financing of a pension and insurance plan for the steelworkers. The union insists that the entire cost be borne by the companies, in line with a recommendation made by the presidential fact finding panel. The companies, implying that such a program would work more successfully if the workers paid at least a portion of the cost, have insisted that this issue be settled by negotiation.

One thing stands out above all others. The two sides are not too far apart and a little give and take by both would result in a satisfactory agreement. Certainly the point in dispute is not in itself sufficient to warrant a costly prolonged strike that would affect many times more workers than are presently employed in the steel mills.

Plan To Honor J. N. "Ding" Darling

"DING" Darling, a name known to every sportsman, is a great messiah of conservation in America. His crusades for the conservation of natural resources, his cartooning, his writings and talks have registered beyond the borders of the United States. His battle cries find echoes in our good neighbor to the north, the Dominion of Canada, and are beginning to register south of the Rio Grande. Recognition of "Ding's" fight against the exploitation of natural resources should be on an international, not merely national basis.

It has been proposed to honor Darling by giving him a place on the 1950 duck stamp. But "Ding" himself squelched this idea after the Outdoor Writers of America, Izaak Walton League and others had contributed support to the proposal in the form of favoring resolutions.

But great numbers of Americans who love the outdoors for which this man has fought so long and so gloriously, want to give him good evidence of their esteem while he still lives. All America is ready to co-operate. The duck hunters of Iowa, "Ding's" home state, are raising a fund of $25,000 to defray the construction costs of a dam on the rolling prairies of central Saskatchewan. Dikes, canals, road culverts and other improvements are being completed, and seven basins will soon be flooded to provide permanent lakes. Here will be a vast nesting project for migratory waterfowl and all species of shorebirds which come to this section of Saskatchewan each spring to breed and nest and raise their young.

The project will be named in perpetuity and in honor of Jay N. Darling, and will be suitably marked with a field stone cairn and a bronze plaque. Contributions to the fund-raising, which is actively aided by practically all Iowa newspapers, can be sent to Ducks Unlimited, R. E. Romey, treasurer, 23 First street, s. e., Mason City, Iowa. Here is something most practical and already underway, that will fittingly honor one of the greatest conservationists this country has ever mothered.

SMELL OF FROST

If one would be scientific he should not speak of equinoctial storms. An equinox is a mechanical affair when the sun and earth are in specific space relationship. Storms break over the countryside when certain atmospheric conditions are fulfilled and for much of the year the cycle is reasonably regular. Cumulus clouds change to cirrus, cirrus to stratus; then the latter thicken to rain or snow-giving nimbus. There is a time in early fall after the rains that follow the equinox when one can forecast the weather, perhaps, more readily than at any other season of year.

About the middle of a late September-spangled day, haze begins to deepen on the mountains. As a man is digging his potatoes he is suddenly conscious that the breeze has freshened and swung into the north. Toward dusk as he is hauling the bags to the shed, blue jays begin bugling from the orchard—an almost certain sign of a weather change. As a man lights his lantern to start evening chores he is increasingly certain. The breeze has died away. That is a sign of a frost.

One can smell the on-coming frost best when he goes to the barn at nine o'clock to see that the livestock is safe for the night. Not a cloud in the sky. The whole countryside is hushed and waiting. A sharp-edged waning moon slices its path steadily among the stars. Foxes and soon will be abroad tonight; owls on silent wings will course the meadows and swamps. The thermometer by the ell door confirms that the temperature is dropping but one does not need a man-made contrivance. There is a brittle, cutting chill in the air that makes one's nostrils crinkle; there is the unmistakable fall fragrance compounded of dry grasses, matured leaves and orchard fruit. Suddenly, there is a faint suggestion of a breeze. It is sharp-edged with cold. This is the end of summer. Man makes calendars but nature determines the seasons. It will be below 32 tonight and the morning's white covering will confirm the evening's smell of frost. — By Haydn Pearson.

OASIS IN THE ANTARCTIC (Green Bay Press-Gazette)

Norway is heading an expedition to the Antarctic. British and Swedish scientists are participating. The aim is to make a landing on an area that has stirred the imaginations of men everywhere. Flyers have noted, after soaring over hundreds of miles of ice barrier, a stretch of snow free land that must, somehow, be warm, whether from a freak of nature or square miles of bubbling hot wells no one can say.

But when this peculiar situation was noted, and word got around about it, claims were filed to its title. Norway says it belongs to her. Hitler had swastika flags dropped upon it as evidence of title. But claims to ownership still depend upon the one who gets there fastest with the mostest men.

A clock in Oklahoma has been running steadily since 1892. Maybe it thinks it's a politician.

Worcester: Recently, in emphasizing that English is not phonetic, you listed the trio: bomb, comb, tomb. Are there any other series of three that are different in pronunciation?—H. M.

Answer: Here are a few, but there are many more: hose, dose, lose; done, gone, lone; blood, food, good; fussy, dussy, puss. Q. Why is the golfer's "caddie" so called?

A. Golf originated in Scotland. Caddie is a Scotch corruption of the French cadet (pronounced: ka-DEH). The original Scotch meaning of caddie was, "an errand boy; one who does odd jobs."

Washington: Please give the proper pronunciation of the word connoisseur.—E.

Answer: "Connoisseur" is the Anglicized form of the French connoisseur, from the verb connaître, "to know." In best usage, connoisseur is pronounced kon-i-SER, the third syllable rhyming with her, per. Some dictionaries also show a long "u" (yoo) sound in the third syllable, thus: kon-i-SYOOR. However, I do not recommend it for the reason that "syoor" approaches or actually becomes "sewer," thus giving the word an unpleasant connotation.

Foreign Aid To Be Issue

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—Many Americans seem to feel that devaluation of the pound is a kind of just punishment visited on the British for their sins. That note runs through much of the comment on the great currency upheaval that has shaken the world.

Childs

But actually if devaluation has the effect sought by those who promoted it, American manufacturers in many fields will come to realize that it is a sharp weapon in the hands of the British. It is a weapon which may enable them to compete in American markets from which they have been hitherto excluded by their high production costs.

When that happens—if it happens—these same American manufacturers are going to start yelling to high heaven about foreign competition subsidized by taxing the American taxpayer. That hits, of course, at the central flaw in the Marshall Plan approach to Europe.

DIRKSEN OPPOSES AID

It goes against the American temperament—perhaps against human nature—to pay out money to help foreigners to become our competitors, that is possible so long as the steam of idealism, engendered by a crisis psychology, remains at a high enough level. There are today significant signs that that level is dropping and dropping fast.

Out in Illinois former Representative Everett Dirksen announced his candidacy for the Senate in next year's election. In starting so early for the seat now held by majority leader Scott Lucas, Dirksen is taking a strong line against any further European aid.

For a Republican in Illinois this might be considered just normal if it were not for one important fact in the Dirksen story. In Congress Dirksen went all out for the European Recovery Program. He fought hard and effectively in the 80th Congress to get the full appropriation sought by the Truman administration for European aid.

Thus his present isolationism, if that's the word for it, represents a complete reversal. I remember having a long talk with Dirksen in the fall of 1947 in London. What he had seen in Europe had convinced him that the United States would have to take the lead in helping to save Europe from Communism.

"It was a good gamble for the first year," he says now. "But look at the report for the first year. We haven't gotten our money's worth. Look at the British trade deals with Argentina. It hasn't brought intro-European trade."

"It's a bottomless hole—just as in China. There's no use going through the China experience again. From 1939 on we put two billions in there and then we put in $225,000,000 in ECA money. It doesn't appeal to these hard-boiled people out here."

You can be cynical and say that Dirksen is merely angling for the support of Col. Robert R. McCormick of the Chicago Tribune who is the power in the party in Illinois. But, after all, the prime necessity of a politician is to win elections, and Dirksen must have concluded that this is the way to get elected to the Senate.

The Dirksen straw could be discounted if there were not other similar signs. Senators who went back home during the brief recess found considerable grumbling over foreign aid. The purchase of Canadian wheat with ECA dollars sent to Britain is bound to cause more complaints.

FRENCH STRIKES EXPECTED

Those who have always been isolationist and eager to discredit the whole administration program are ready to capitalize on these feelings. They will exploit them to the utmost. This coming winter there will almost certainly be new Communist strikes in France and they will feed the mood of disillusion.

But it goes beyond partisan politics. The time has come, it seems to me, when new and bold and imaginative thinking is called for that will put a program of European co-operation more nearly in line with the realities of the American taxpayer and the American producer.

Something new—a new X factor—is needed that will give the average American a practical stake in European co-operation and recovery. If it is not found, the result may be a fatal division of the west into savagely competing economic blocs. Among those who were most dubious about devaluation of the pound, the fear was that the principal result of devaluation might be to drive American exporters out of present foreign markets while British producers would fail to make any real dent on the American dollar market. In other words, the prescription might accelerate the very disease it was meant to cure.

that the name of a precious stone?—Mrs. C. H. S.

A. Two thousand years or so ago some Roman gentleman, suffering intensely from a large boil-like swelling on the back of his neck, said that it felt as if a live coal were burning its way into his flesh. He used the Latin word, carbunculus, "a small live coal," and from it we have the modern word carbuncle. The precious stone, the carbuncle, is so called for its resemblance to a small glowing coal.

Q. Is the "o" long (oh) in mediocrity, and what is the origin of the word?

A. The "o" is short as in "dock." Say: mee-dee-OCK-ri-tee.

The word comes from the Latin medius, "middle; halfway," plus creris, "rugged peak." A mediocre person, then, is literally one who is halfway up a mountain. Hence, figuratively, a middling degree of excellence; undistinguished; ordinary.

Note that the "o" of mediocre is long, thus: MEE-dee-oh-ker.

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

THE TOURISTS—This coming week there will be revived the early "Glidden Automobile Tour" under sponsorship of the Antique Automobile Club of America. Included in the tour will be 70 antique automobiles, which will be driven over a 650-mile route through five Eastern states.

Dunathan

garded with suspicion and Old Dobbin still held his head proudly high. Auto owners in those days were more than likely to hear bystanders shout "Get a horse" or be cursed by the owner of a horse that reared in fright at the passing of the new but noisy contraption.

TURNING POINT—The advent of the automobile was but another phase in the American parade of transportation.

In the revived Glidden Tour will be every imaginable type of old car, including a 1901 Oldsmobile, the oldest in the tour; a 1914 Stutz Bearcat; and a 1915 Stanley Mountain Wagon. The earliest Ford in the tour will be a 1910 model. Other makes will include an aristocratic Pierce Arrow (it has fender headlamps), a Winton (in 1911 you could get a Winton in a choice of six colors), and such others as the Maxwell, Mercedes, Simplex, Mercer, Mitchell, Pathfinder, Buick, Jackson, Hupmobile, Overland, Chalmers and Rolls Royce.

When those autos go rolling along it may bring a nostalgic tear among oldtimers who remember when autos didn't roll off assembly lines—but did roll faithfully for a long time thereafter.

PASSING PARADE—Folks who had lifted a scornful eyebrow at the first automobile in their community perhaps did not realize that the auto followed in the wheel tracks of the bicycle. For it was the demand of the Wheelmen of America, an early-day bike riders association, for better roads on which to pedal on weekend trips.

The roads were improved—and the autos rolled merrily along on their also.

Many of these roads previously had been little more than rutted trails, the dirt fairly smooth during the dry summer season but impassable in the spring and fall except to horse-drawn vehicles.

PREJUDICE—Bikes were bad enough but the auto were worse, said the people who complained that they frightened horses, raised too much dust, and disturbed the serene quiet of the countryside.

So special legislation, prejudicial to the auto owner, was passed by horse-and-buggy lawmakers. In Michigan at one time the traffic laws required that the driver of an auto must halt when he saw a horse-drawn vehicle approaching, and to get out and offer to assist the horse-driver in getting the horse around the car!

If the motorist was driving at night he must get down from his

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago
Gladstone—Gladstone will be the site of the new Michigan state police post to be established in Delta county, it was announced yesterday by City Manager A. F. Raddant.

Manistique — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams left Saturday for Lower Michigan where they will join Mr. and Mrs. J. Hovey and travel to Corning, N. Y., where they will visit with George Hovey father of Mrs. Adams and Mr. J. Hovey.

Munising—Paul Keeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Keeton, will leave today for St. Mary's Idaho, where he will enter the practice of law with his uncle, William D. Keeton. Paul was graduated from the University of Michigan Law School this year and took his bar examination this month.

Twenty Years Ago
Escanaba—Lewis Cass chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, announced a year ago that the society would present pictures to the two grades in the public schools attaining the highest average in United States history. The seventh grade at the Webster school and the seventh grade at the Washington school were the winning classes.

Gladstone—The first accident of the duck hunting season occurred Sunday when Alpha King, 18, of Masonville, received injuries resulting in the loss of his right hand, when his gun, which he had placed in the boat with him, accidentally discharged.

car waving a red lantern, and in town he was required to drive at speeds as slow as five miles an hour.

Folks were accustomed to the horse. The auto was an interloper, a gadget without useful value.

THE HERO HORSE—The deep and lasting affection for the horse is rooted in more than a sentimental tradition.

For it was the horse that carried the majority of American pioneers to their new homes, opened to settlement a wilderness, brought contact with civilization for many years before railroads, autos, or airplanes.

It was a horse, not a bicycle or a hot rod, that Paul Revere mounted on his ride to spread the alarm to every Middlesex village and farm. General Washington rode a horse in the campaigns of the Revolutionary War and his horse was a companion in the sufferings at Valley Forge.

And it was the horse that pulled the covered wagons westward to carry settlers and goods over wilderness "turnpikes" into an ever-expanding new frontier. The horse was an important factor in the winning of the west—a "West" that extended from the Allegheny Mountains beyond the Rockies.

CONESTOGAS—The Conestogas or covered wagons, were first built and used about 1750 by farmers in Lancaster county, Pa. The capacious sturdiness of the wagons, drawn by six-horse teams and capable of traveling 20 miles a day, ideally fitted them for long overland trips.

Hundreds of thousands of pioneer families and millions of tons of freight rolled westward in the Conestogas. The covered wagons measured 16 feet long and the wheels were the height of most men. These wheels rolled out ahead for half a century, leading the way for the stage coach, the railroad, and the automobile.

Boxcars On Rubber

Dear Editor:

Our country has the finest system of national, state and local highways in the world—for the moment. I say "for the moment" because this towering investment, representing literally billions of dollars of tax money, is being willfully destroyed by an increasing number of truck operators who heap on payloads far in excess of legal highway maximums.

This practice is shunned by legitimate operators but the fact remains that there are many violators who are willing to destroy OUR highways. Samuel C. Hadden, chairman, State Highway Commission of Indiana, warned recently "A greatly augmented and still increasing number of HEAVY trucks and trailers, operating for long distances, is destroying our roads faster than we can find money to replace them."

Thomas MacDonald, U. S. Commissioner of Public Roads, estimates that this year alone it will cost taxpayers around two-and-a-half billion dollars to reconstruct, patch up and maintain highways battered beyond the point of safe use. All of this cannot be blamed on heavier-than-legal trucks but whatever their share, the damage they cause is a form of larceny of your tax money. When a trucker deliberately overloads, he is a law violator. When he damages our highways because of this illegality, he is stealing money out of my pocket and out of the pockets of every taxpayer in your community, your state and in the nation.

It appears to me that like the liquor industry which found self-regulation a long-range blessing, it might be a wise step for reputable truckers to crack down on those shabby colleagues who are giving the industry a bad reputation. highway engineers a headache and taxpayers a reason to demand sharp-toothed legislation to limit weight loads of these boxcars on rubber.

Yours very truly,
John C. Conover.

Careless Drivers

Dear Editor:

I've been going to write to you for some time on this non-stop fight that drivers in Escanaba put on around and past the school bus.

Our children, four of them cross the street (out past athletic field) and have nearly been hit by cars, they leave here at 7:45 and don't return to us until 4:15. Do these drivers want to deprive us of our children ever to return to us?

15 or 20 children board the school bus at our stop, half of these children cross the street there are several five year olds starting to school this year but so early in the morning can they be blamed for sleepiness and not up to thinking properly so early?

Next year I will start another child in school also there are at least four others. Please all that drive cars its only asking fairness to our children. Slow Down And Stop when you see the good true American colors, Red, White and Blue. It's our school bus.

Save our children please. One minute will save us our children's death or being crippled the rest of their lives.

Please do this for our children and us.

Thank you,
Mrs. Cecil B. Chase.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—When John L. Lewis sent the strike call down the line—"No welfare payments, no work"—it was one of the biggest hoaxes he has ever pulled on both his miners and the American public.

For, actually, the welfare payments were being made. Not a single northern operator had suspended payments. They were living up to the spirit of the contract even when no contract existed.

And in the south only three or four operators, including the Island Creek and the Pond Creek companies of West Virginia, had stopped the payments.

PEARSON
In other words, Lewis penalized all the operators who were cooperating—which was 99 per cent of them—on the false pretext that the southern operators were not contributing to the welfare fund.

Real fact, however, is that Lewis wanted an excuse for a general walkout without leaving himself open to possible court action by personally calling a strike. Thus, he made it appear that a great many operators were withholding the royalty payments on coal tonnage.

LEWIS VS. MURRAY

The real reason for Lewis's tactics in fomenting the strike at this particular time were:

1. He has always wanted to bargain in the fall as the cold season sets in rather than in the spring when demand for coal diminishes.

2. Lewis has spent the welfare portion of his welfare-pension plan so extravagantly that he has to have more money. It has not been the fault of the operators that this fund has been dissipated.

3. Lewis wanted to humiliate and embarrass his old friend and now enemy, CIO Chief Phil Murray.

The president's fact-finding board in the steel dispute has already recommended 10 cents an hour in welfare-pension benefits for steelworkers. This is relatively the same amount as Lewis gets from the coal operators. Therefore if Lewis, by striking now, is able to wangle even two or three cents more royalty out of the coal operators he will be able to preen his feathers at Murray and boast that he is a much better friend of labor.

Meanwhile and to satisfy Lewis's vanity, the entire nation will soon be short of coal despite the fact that all but three or four of the coal operators were continuing to make payments into the miners welfare-pension fund even though they had signed no contracts.

PEDESTRIAN'S LEGION DAYS

When Dynamic Clyde Lewis called at the White House the other day, President Truman warmly congratulated him on being the first World War II vet to be elected national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"But," added Truman, with a twinkle in his eye, "you fellows don't have the pep of us World War I boys."

Then he recalled that during an American Legion convention in Kansas City some years back he and a few cronies led a bull into the lobby of the Muehlbach hotel.

"And do you know what the critter did?" continued the president in mock horror. "He had an accident right on the floor. The spot's still on the hotel rug."

NOTE—Lewis, whose politics differ from Truman's remarked afterward to friends: "I'm a rock-ribbed Republican, but you can't help liking Mr. Truman."

PRODIGAL SENATOR RETURNS

Idaho's repentant Sen. Glen Taylor, who broke with the Democrats to run for vice president on the Henry Wallace ticket, came face to face the other day with the man he revolted against—Harry Truman. This was their first meeting since Truman secretly summoned Taylor to the White House in 1948 and begged him to stay true to the Democratic party.

But the president seemed to hold no grudges. He was standing in front of his desk when Taylor was ushered into the office and gestured as if to welcome back the prodigal son.

After a cordial handshake, the President escorted Taylor over to a globe of the world and gave it a spin to Iran.

"I'm expecting a visit from the Shah of Persia," explained Truman. Then he mused, half to himself: "I'll probably have to send my plane for him."

"You'll probably be criticized," warned Taylor.

"I'll be criticized whatever I do," retorted the president.

As they sauntered back to the presidential desk, the Senator from Idaho congratulated Truman on his "great victory."

"I was happy to see you elected," declared Taylor, earnestly.

The president replied that he had been through the same thing before in Missouri where he wasn't supposed to have a chance. But by going to the people with his case, he always won.

The presidential campaign, remarked Truman, "was the same thing as before only on a bigger scale."

When the subject of more decent politics was brought up, Taylor observed: "I have voted with you on every domestic issue, but I still can't agree with your get-tough foreign policy."

"That is the only way to handle the Russians," declared the president with conviction.

Later, as the reoriented rebel from Idaho departed, the president called after him: "see you again"

State Regent
Of D. A. R. Is Speaker Here

"The D. A. R. is against world government, but definitely for world organization," stated Mrs. Walter C. Pomeroy of Ann Arbor, state regent of the Michigan Daughters of the American Revolution in a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Anthony. State officers of the organization, two national officers and members of Chippewa chapter of Iron Mountain were guests of Lewis Cass chapter.

In her message, the state regent told some of the outstanding projects of the national and state organizations. A vivid description of Kate Duncan Smith school, which is one of the approved schools supported by the D. A. R., included a comment on the Michigan laundry, one of the features of the school equipment. The laundry is an attractive stone building, the erection and equipment of which has been paid for by the Michigan daughters. Mrs. Pomeroy also talked at some length on the Indian girls which the Michigan D. A. R. is educating in various colleges and universities.

Other state and national officers and chairmen who attended the meeting and brought messages concerning national projects were: first vice regent, Mrs. John A. Cook, Lansing; second vice regent, Mrs. Reuben N. Aspergren, Kalamazoo; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Farber, Flint; treasurer, Mrs. George Wheeler, Port Huron; registrar, Mrs. Earl S. Mastick, Plymouth; historian, Mrs. Harry W. Lundahl, Adrian; director, Mrs. Ralph Newland, St. Joseph. National organizing secretary and national chairman of finance, Miss Laura C. Cook, of Hillsdale, whose present address is Washington, D. C.; and vice president general from Michigan, Mrs. Chester E. Miller, Saginaw.

State Project
A state project which has gained the attention of the War Department is a sound movie called "Learning Democracy Through School Community Projects." The War Department was so favorably impressed with this picture that the Michigan D. A. R. has been asked to lend it to the department, and it is now in the process of being adapted with suitable sound track for use in the occupied zone of Germany.

Mrs. Hugo Swanson of Norway, regent of Chippewa chapter, and the following members of the chapter were present at the meeting: Mrs. John M. Erickson, Mrs. Edward Bradley and Mrs. Newell Cornish.

Nahma
School News
Nahma, Mich.—Teachers and students were busy this week at the school grounds getting the spot ready for the new basketball court. Fifty bags of cement have been donated by Conrad Denison, who resides on Federal 13 near Munising. If weather permits the cement will be laid this weekend. Anyone wishing to help with the work can report at the school ground on Saturday.

Bostedor-Hicks
Wedding Is Of Interest Here

A wedding of interest in Escanaba, former home of the bridegroom's mother, is that of Wanda L. Bostedor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bostedor of Grass Lake, and Richard L. Hicks of Jackson, which took place Saturday, September 17, at St. John's Catholic church in Jackson. Mr. Hicks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hicks of Adrian and is a nephew of Mrs. Herbert F. Kirstin of this city. His mother will be remembered as the former Isabelle Cotoir of Escanaba.

Attractive arrangements of chrysanthemums decorated the church altars for the 10 o'clock ceremony read by Father Clarence Wood.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white satin with a Queen Ann collar, long tapering sleeves and a full skirt with brocade at the hipline. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a brocade crown. A white orchid and stephanotis were attached to the cover of her prayer book.

The maid of honor, Annetta Hoffman, wore American Beauty red, and the bridesmaids, Evelyn DeVerna, Doris Wolfe and Betty Jo Spencer, peacock blue, their satin gowns styled like the bride's with short sleeves. The maid of honor carried American beauty roses and chrysanthemums and the bridesmaids, rapture roses and chrysanthemums. Mary Joan, the bridegroom's young sister, who was flower girl, wore a basket of rose petals.

Mr. Hicks was assisted by Patrick Vought as best man. Seating the guests were John O'Neill, Richard Schramm and Jim Cavender.

The bride's mother wore an aqua and brown ensemble with a corsage of yellow roses and Mrs. Hicks chose a delft blue gown with black accessories and her corsage was pink roses.

Breakfast and Reception
After the service breakfast was served to members of the immediate families at the Hayes hotel. From 2 until 4 in the afternoon the couple received congratulations from 150 friends and relatives at a reception at the hotel.

The newlyweds after a honeymoon at Niagara Falls and Washington, D. C. will live in Jackson at 206 Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirstin of this city were among guests at the wedding.

Today's Recipes

Mrs. Sandy Short of Rapid River has sent in her recipe for canned tomato soup in answer to a request received from a reader several days ago.

Canned Tomato Soup
Boil until thoroughly cooked one-half bushel ripe tomatoes which have been sliced but not peeled. Chop fine fourteen stalks celery, seven medium onions and boil with fourteen sprigs of parsley. Add this to tomatoes and cook until you can put all through a sieve.

To thicken use: fourteen tablespoons sugar, fourteen tablespoons flour, fourteen tablespoons butter, eight tablespoons salt, two red peppers, two green peppers, one-half teaspoon red pepper paprika. Work flour, sugar, salt and butter together. Can while hot and seal. When serving add one-half cup milk or cream to each pint of soup.

American Farmhouse Has Modern Ideas

The NORTHFORD

REGULAR FLOOR PLAN

ALTERNATE FLOOR PLAN

Coupling the simplicity of the old, American farmhouse style with such modern ideas as corner and picture windows and the combination of living room with dining room, the Home of the Week Plan Service comes forth with a home design well adapted to present day needs. It is called "The Northford."

A choice of two floor plans is offered, one having the entrance under a sheltered porch, on the front of the house, the other having the front door open from a concrete stoop into a tiny hall with coat closet. There also is a slight variation in the general layout, the kitchen being larger in one plan, the rear bedroom larger in the other.

Cubage is 18,900 Feet. The house measures 36x25 feet. Built with the porch end to the street, it could be placed on a lot with a 40-foot frontage. On a larger lot the house could be placed as pictured, with its long expanse paralleling the street.

Cubage of this house is 18,900 feet. Storage space in the attic could be made accessible by placing a disappearing stairway in the back hall of the house. Insulation over ceilings should be installed at the time of construction and ventilating louvers placed in gable ends.

White painted shingles were the exterior finish chosen in the example pictured, though clapboards, brick or stone could have been used for the sidewalls.

The living-dining room is 18 feet long and 13 feet wide. An alcove treatment of the outside end of the room creates dining space directly connected with the kitchen by a swinging door.

The flush-mantel type fireplace in the long inside wall of the room is placed directly opposite a picture window that has conventional-type sliding windows at either side, easily opened for ventilation.

Two doors near the inside corner of the living room, a closet is located between them, open into the front bedroom and to a rear hall connecting with all other parts of the house. In both plans, the front bedroom measures 11x10 1/2 feet. The rear bedroom, at one end of the straight hall varies in size in the two plans.

Bathroom and cellar stairway open off the hall, as does a closet which can be either used for linens or for general storage. The bathroom also has its own storage closet, along with the usual shower-over-tub and other modern fixtures. Linoleum floor covering is specified for the bathroom and for the kitchen; the other rooms have hardwood floors.

Kitchen Planned for Efficiency.

The kitchen in both plans is laid out with an eye to efficiency. The first plan has the service entry opening at the rear of the house; the alternate plan changes this to the side of the house, from which a breeze-way might be built to connect house and an adjacent garage if the lot is large enough to permit this arrangement. In both layouts a broom closet has been included.

In the full basement the heating system is placed under the kitchen and laundry equipment under the bathroom. This permits utilization of the area under the living room as a recreation room, and space under the bedrooms for a play room or hobby rooms. A bulkhead exit from cellar to rear yard could be installed.

Complete plans and specifications for this "Home of the Week", or any other design of this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Daily Press, and enclose a self-address-

Potter Works For Air Mail

Backs Nationwide Airline Petition

Washington D. C.—Congressman Charles Potter, Cheboygan Republican, has come back to the Capital with a "must" program of his own.

With many of his colleagues still on the "back in a few days" list Potter is on the job early to attend a meeting of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries committee called for Thursday. Also to do "a little special politicking" in behalf of sea lamprey elimination and Michigan fish hatchery funds.

Funds for both of these projects are in the Senate version of the Interior Appropriation bill. (Michigan Senator Homer Ferguson was responsible for the sea lamprey fund provision.)

Now, with the interior bill ready for Senate-House conference, Congressman Potter is on the job to make sure the conferees include it and the hatchery provision in the final draft of the bill.

Other "must" on the Potter schedule is any aid he can provide the U. P. Transportation committee now pressing for favorable action on the Nationwide Airlines application for a franchise to operate between Michigan's two peninsulas.

According to Potter, the Wisconsin Central line now holding a franchise seems to have misrepresented the situation to the Civil Aeronautics Board.

"The Nationwide application has been hanging fire for three years," said Potter. If the communities that need this service get together, their lawyer can demand that Wisconsin Central show cause within 60 days why CAB should not grant the Nationwide franchise. It's time for a little action.

Congressman John Bennett of Ontonagon, due back from Europe on September 26, is also interested in the project.

H. BASIL WALES MEMORIAL PLANTATION—An 87-acre red pine plantation, which was planted in the Hiawatha national forest near Munising by CCC labor under the direction of R. W. Sloss in the fall of 1933, was dedicated recently by the Upper Michigan-Wisconsin chapter of the Society of American Foresters to the memory of H. Basil Wales of Milwaukee, assistant regional forester, who died last spring. The dedicatory address was delivered by Fred Wilson of Madison, president of the chapter, and the acceptance address was given by G. A.

Young of the Escanaba office of the Forest Service. The seed, from which the 80,000 "living memorial" trees grew, was collected on the Chippewa national forest in Minnesota and was later sown in the Forest Service nursery near Rhineland, Wis. The seedlings were two years old when planted. In the above picture, left to right, are: Robert W. Sloss, classmate of H. Basil Wales at Michigan State College, now with the Milwaukee regional office, and G. Willard Jones, in charge of forest nurseries and planting, region nine. (G. A. Hesterberg Photo)

Sneeze Season Nearing Close

Hayfever Days In U. P. End Soon

The 1949 hayfever season is drawing to a close, with few days expected when ragweed pollen counts will go above 100 anywhere in the Upper Peninsula. Dr. William C. Harrison, Delta-Menominee health district director, said today.

The statement is based on figures compiled by the state health department in its ragweed pollen survey conducted by department laboratories at 52 stations in Michigan, of which 15 are in the Upper Peninsula. The Upper Peninsula is in that northern section of Michigan that may offer relief to victims of hayfever.

are visiting at the Edmond Ouellette home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busha and sons, Tommy and Terry, have returned to Flint, after spending the weekend at the Edmond Ouellette home.

Robert Flynn of Salverville, Ky., is visiting with his father, William Flynn.

Arnold Aho who is employed in Chicago spent the weekend with his father, Vaino Aho.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Flynn who are moving here from Munising in about two weeks are getting their home ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Odin Peterson of Menominee spent the weekend at the Francis Finlan home.

Slides on which ragweed pollen counts are exposed at the various stations and the slides are then sent to the laboratories for examination and pollen count. The reports are made on the basis of grains of pollen per cubic yard of air. Most of the pollen slides from the U. P. stations are examined at the state laboratory at Powers.

Frost in some sections of the back country has killed some of the ragweeds, and with further cold weather on the way the plants will be killed, ending the spread of irritating pollen.

During the August-September "hayfever season" there were some areas that had no pollen of 100 grains or more per cubic yard of air. St. Ignace and Munising had no days when the pollen went to 100 grains.

Escanaba had four days when the count was 100 or over, compared with 10 days in the 1948 season. Powers had 9 such days compared with 8 last year; Menominee had 10 such days both this year and last for the highest in the U. P. Manistique had 4 such days this season, compared with 7 last year; and Newberry had 1 day in 1949, compared with 6 last year.

Peak pollen counts for August and September this year at the reporting stations are as follows:

Delta's Potato Harvest Started; Yield Is Down Compared To Last Year

The 1949 potato harvest is now starting in Delta county, with growers freely predicting that yields will fall far short of last year's bumper crop.

Several weather factors, mostly dry spells, account for the drop from last year, when the yield of 347 bushels an acre on the Frank Falkies farm in Baldwin township brought him the Michigan championship for the second consecutive year. Other yields last year ran from 500 on up through 600, 700 and to Falkies' record.

This year the top yields are expected to be in the 500 and 600-bushel class.

Grow Seed Stock

Frosts have been late in coming this year and it will be necessary for growers to kill the plants with chemical vine killers before harvesting begins on the 2,000 acres planted to potatoes in the county. This is about the same acreage as last year, according to J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent. About 90 per cent of the county crop will be russet russets.

The anticipated lower yields here are not unexpected, for production is less this year in other potato growing areas of the nation.

Something new has been added to the potato picture in Delta county this year—the harvesting of russet russet foundation seed stock by two growers. They are Clarence Dittich at Ford River and Octave Carrigan of Cornish, the only two foundation seed growers of russets in the Upper Peninsula.

More Storage Houses

The foundation seed plots have been closely inspected throughout the season, the last inspection this week by H. C. Moore, Michigan State College potato specialist, in company with the county agent.

The foundation seed will be used to supply the certified potato growers next year. Through the years the seed supply will be maintained at a high level, with certified growers planting foundation stock, and the tablestock growers planting certified seed. A higher quality disease-free potato will result.

Some potatoes will be shipped out as soon as the harvest gets under way and additional thousands of bushels will be placed in storage in the county. Since last spring about six more storage houses have been built in the county, Heirman reported.

Last night potato growers met at Cornell town hall with Harry Rusch, manager of the Gillette canning company, and the county agent, to hear Rusch explain the need of his company for small potatoes for canning.

Rusch said he needed about 2,000 bags (about four carloads) of potatoes approximately one and one-quarter inches in size. The trade demands small potatoes in cans, about 20 potatoes to the can, Rusch said.

This size potato is the kind farmers call "pig feed," since they are not marketable and are usually fed to farm stock. One question yet remains: Whether the Delta county russet russets will process well and not "mush up" in canning. Rusch took some of the Delta county potatoes with him to Gillette for canning tests and if they are what he wants his company will buy their supply here. The price to be paid will be almost as much as for U.S.-No. 1's, Rusch told the growers.

Following the potato harvest Delta county will hold its annual potato show on Oct. 27. The U. P. Potato Show this year will be at Newberry on Nov. 1-2-3.

Seney

Seney, Mich.—Mrs. Nettie Miller from Ypsilanti is visiting here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jack Mitchell.

An interesting lesson on glass etching was given to the Home Extension group Tuesday evening at the school by Mrs. Marguerite Burns. Those present included Celia Tovey, Mae Hult, Mary Gosner, Doris Walstrom, Ada McDowell, Bertha Van Wald, Marion Wiertilla, Adeline Hagel, Isabel Olsen, Jennie Nelson, Pearl Smith and Pauline Ketola. Lunch was served by Mrs. Walstrom.

Lowell Maxon arrived here Wednesday from Detroit and is visiting at the home of his grandmother Mrs. Ida Van Sickle.

Mrs. Pearl Smith received word Wednesday from her son Donald, who has been serving with the U. S. Army in Japan for the past three years, that he had arrived in San Francisco and would soon be home.

Mrs. E. Tovey and Mrs. A. Boyd left Monday for Petoskey where they will receive medical attention at the Little Traverse hospital.

Fall Term Of Circuit Court Opens Monday P. M.

The fall term of Schoolcraft County Circuit Court will convene Monday afternoon at two o'clock with Judge Herbert Runnels presiding.

Monday's activities will be taken up chiefly with calling the calendar, the judge noting each case, ascertaining if the attorneys are ready to try the cases and assigning the order in which they are to be tried.

Jurors will not be called for duty until ten o'clock Tuesday morning. It is not expected that the session will last more than two or three days.

Miss Mary Lanther returned to Blaney Park where she is employed after spending a few days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lanther.

MRS. DONALD DESAUTEL was the former Miss Betty Curran, Maple avenue, before her marriage on Saturday, September 17 in Zion Lutheran church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delphia Desautel of Gulliver (Bradley Photo)

Floyd Gould, Sr. Called By Death

Services Will Be Held Monday A. M.

Floyd Gould, sr., 49, who for many years operated as a commercial fisherman, died Thursday night at his home at 107 South Fourth street following a several months illness.

Mr. Gould was born at Bay City on Feb. 20, 1890 and came to Manistique forty-four years ago. He was married in Manistique on August 20, 1911 to Miss Elizabeth Price. In 1920 the family moved to Alpena where they resided for about twenty years, returning again to Manistique where they lived up to the time of his death.

Surviving him are his father, Theodore Gould, of Manistique; his widow Elizabeth; three sons, Floyd Jr., and Robert of Manistique and Robert of Jackson; three daughters, Mrs. Marie DeWaters, Rogers City; Mrs. Geraldine Westerman and Mrs. Theodore Heffernan, Grand Rapids; the Misses Karen Jean and Elizabeth Gould, Manistique three brothers, Earl, of Grand Rapids; Jack and Fred of Manistique; five sisters, Mrs. Frank Gierke, Mrs. Joseph Osterhaut and Mrs. Chester Elliott, Manistique; Mrs. Beatrice Miller, Almonte, Calif.; and Mrs. Eleanor Hart, of Sault Ste. Marie and nineteen grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church on Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. E. H. Berendsen will conduct the funeral mass and burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Paper Mill Has Fire Call Early Friday Morning

Timely action on the part of employees close at hand put out what might have been a very serious fire at the paper mill about 6:45 Friday morning.

The fire started in a pile of discarded paper at the rear of the big machine where the paper is transferred onto the roll. A hot bearing is blamed for the ignition.

The fire department was called and a general alarm sounded, but employees at the mill had the situation well in hand when the department arrived.

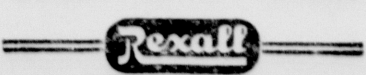

IT'S A FALLACY!

A popular fallacy says we should eat fish for "brain food." While fish is an excellent source of many nutritional elements, no particular food will improve our mind, if eaten regularly.

It has been proved, however, that a well-balanced diet will indirectly improve our sense of well-being, as well as nourishing our body.

126 Persons Offer Blood For Plasma

Many More Can Be Accommodated

A total of 126 persons have already registered to give blood when the Michigan Mobile Plasma unit comes to Manistique next Monday. Although the number is still considerably below the quota of 280 set for Schoolcraft county, it is hoped that last minute registrations will reach the goal. Registration blanks as a means of registering are no longer available, but persons may still register by a phone call to Mrs. Malcolm Nelson, phone 245-W. Mrs. Nelson, who is serving as registrar, will make appointments by telephone until the opening of the center on Monday.

The Unit will be set up in the parlors of the Presbyterian church and will be in operation for two periods, from three to five, and five to seven p. m. under the direction of Emilie A. Clarke, M. D. of Michigan Department of Health. Four registered nurses also travel with the blood procurement unit: Ann Winters, Alice Kramer, Virginia Maddux and Iva V. Allen. They will be assisted by local volunteer nurses and workers. Receptionists will be Mrs. Kenneth White, Mrs. Robert Curley, Mrs. C. F. Anderson and Mrs. Alvin Nelson. Assisting as registrars will be Mrs. Aldred Farley, Mrs. Carl Olson, and Mrs. Clarence Peterson. Mrs. G. L. Bouschor is in charge of the canteen at which the donors will be served a light lunch of sandwiches and doughnuts. Members of her committee are Mrs. Omer Dybek, Mrs. Arthur Saunders, Mrs. Howard Hewitt, and Mrs. A. O. Drevdahl.

Offer Free Rides
The 52 Taxicab company has offered to donate its service on Monday, giving free rides to the center, and later returning the donors to their homes. Because of the time involved this offer is necessarily confined to persons within the city limits, Joseph LaMuth, operator of the company, announced.

Another accommodation for mothers of pre-school children, who wish to donate blood, will be a nursery which will be conducted in an adjoining room at the church parlors. Mothers may bring their small children in the afternoon during the 3 to 5 period and they will be cared for and entertained while their mothers are occupied in the donor room and canteen.

Several business places have offered to allow their employees to leave work for the time needed for their blood donation without any deduction of pay. Wherever possible this privilege is being asked for donors in order to avoid a rush of appointments for the evening period, Mrs. Carl Makel, chairman, stated today. About 30 minutes in all that is required for your visit to the center, including the thorough pre check-up, five minutes, actually spent in the giving of blood, and the canteen service. The process is entirely painless, and only the blood of persons found to be in good health is accepted. All of the blood taken from persons in this county will be processed into plasma and its derivatives, and is available without charge for Schoolcraft county when needed.

Mother Of Local Woman Passes Away

Mrs. William Hughes, mother of Mrs. George Kerr of this city, died Wednesday morning in a Newberry hospital following a heart attack.

Mrs. Hughes is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. Bernice Baker of Newberry, and one granddaughter.

Funeral services and burial took place this afternoon at Newberry.

PTA Groups Plan Joint Meeting

Noted Educator To Address Gathering

Announcements were released yesterday of a joint meeting of the Lakeside-Central and Lincoln P.T.A. groups to be held Wednesday evening, September 28, by respective presidents, Mrs. Earl Jewett and Mrs. Roy Briggs. Highlighting the meeting will be a talk by Mrs. Belle Farley Murray and will start promptly at 8:00 p. m. in the High School auditorium. Mrs. Murray, who talks on child psychology, has appeared before Manistique audiences before and comes highly recommended. She is an authority on parent education and is lecturing for the Extension Service of the University of Michigan in its program on home and family life.

In the afternoon of the same day a school of instruction and parliamentary procedures will be conducted by four committee chairmen of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers. These are Mrs. Nevin L. Bean, of Detroit, chairman of the preschool services and parent education; Mrs. Joseph Slezak, Bay City, chairman of adult education; Mrs. Vera Gelzer, Hillsdale, chairman of publications and Mrs. M. A. Syfers, of Sault Ste. Marie, in charge of organization.

Everyone interested in conducting business meetings or organizing groups should be in attendance at this afternoon session which will be held in the Lakeside school at 3:00 p. m.

Following the afternoon session the visiting State women will be entertained by members of both executive boards at a supper in the Central School Kindergarten.

Famous Leper Is Well Again

Mrs. Hornbostel Is Cured At Carville

New York—The people of the United States have observed, recently, the workings of a modern miracle—a miracle transcending about 5000 years of superstition and fear. That would be the graduation of Mrs. Hans Hornbostel from the National Leprosarium at Carville, La.—still a leper, technically, but free to live among nonleprosy people, and proud to publicize the fact that she is at large, including the listing of her address in Long Island.

Mrs. Hornbostel, a pleasant but quick-tempered lady, is an old acquaintance of mine. I visited her some 18 months ago at the hospital in Carville, where she had been with an active case of Hansen's disease. The disease had broken out while she was an inmate of the Japanese prison camp in the Philippines—Santo Tomas, as I remember.

She did not catch it there, since it has been pretty well proven that adults do not contract leprosy. Mrs. Hornbostel collected her bacilli when she was a child in the Marianas—either Guam or Saipan. They lay dormant for some 30 years. Only when her health broke under the stringencies of living in a Japanese internment camp did the disease become active.

Not a Crime

When Mrs. Hornbostel was repatriated, her leprosy was detected, and she was treated nearly as a criminal in San Francisco until such time as she consented to commit herself as an inmate—nasty word—at Carville. She was guilty of no crime. She merely possessed a sickness which is practically incommunicable to any but children in certain endemic areas, and then through such lengthy and intimate contact that the chances are a million to one against acquiring it.

Her husband, Maj. Hans Hornbostel, refused to desert his wife. Their case became a cause célèbre. The major said that if she went to the leprosarium, he went too, because after 30 years or so of matrimony, he didn't figure to catch anything he hadn't already caught.

There was a housewife against their living together, however. Even in the enlightened present, lepers are still legally treated more as criminals than as patients.

Hornbostel wasn't allowed to live with his wife outside the barbed wire fence. He was permitted to visit her all day, until 11 p. m.

There is no recorded instance of any adult ever acquiring leprosy, unless his adolescence was spent in an endemic area. Last time I checked, 145 willing guinea pigs had deliberately attempted to infect themselves, through all known methods, with no success. Even the sainted Father Damien, who died a leper on Molokai, came from a sector of France which was noted for its heavy leprosy quotient. It is a fairly even gamble that Father Damien bore the seeds of the disease in his system when he went to Hawaii.

Biblical "Lepers"

Leprosy has been falsely presented since pre-Christian days, when the cry of "unclean, unclean," rang in the streets, and the sick beggars shook their rattles to warn passers-by from their path. The biblical "lepers" suffered from many skin diseases, ailments easily observed in the middle east today, but most of them weren't leprosy.

Mrs. Hornbostel was the necessary symbol to break the back of an old misconception about a disease which, actually, is about as hard on the victim and as arrestable as tuberculosis, another malady it resembles closely. She and her husband raised a ruckus at Carville. Both were voluble about the criminal approach to a disease which is a great deal less menacing to the public weal than the casual sneeze on the subway. They loudly resented the superstitious old restrictions which made a criminal out of unfortunate people who constituted negligible threat to the health of people around them. Together with a youngster named Nick, and the blind editor, Stanley Stein, Mrs. H. and her spouse shed an entirely fresh light on leprosy.

Some reasonably new drugs—promine, diascene, promizole—have now made it possible to halt the disease and render it noncatchable, even in the areas where it flourishes. Mrs. Hornbostel returns to civilian life this week, not cured, but arrested in her ailment and as safe as church to be near.

I mention a miracle. It was the fact that she heralded her return with an announcement in all the press. Previously, lepers have slunk back to life and hid in dark corners, as befitted people with shame to hide. Mrs. Hornbostel walks out as she strode in, with her chin in the air. And in view of the ancient history of the disease, she is a modern Joan of Arc. She'll also be a swell neighbor.

CANNERY STARTS SHIPPING—First shipment of Country Garden Brand vegetables from the Coleman Canning Co., plant which started operations here this summer was picked up last Saturday by the Hewett Grocery Co., of Escanaba. Einar Berg (right) is loading truck with Jack Ulrich, plant manager next, then A. C. Finstrom, manager of the Hewett Grocery Co., and Herman Kamrath, Hewett salesman. Over 60,000 cases were canned the first season. Manager Ulrich reports having had splendid cooperation from growers in this territory.

Mascot Offered To High School

Billygoat Looks And Acts Like Plato

If Gladstone high school students so wish, a goat that bears a marked resemblance to Major Hoople's non-talking billy, Plato, will become the mascot of the Braves.

The offer to the high school has been made by Walter Nehmer, manager of a local chain food store, who received the animal with transportation charges collect from a "friend" at Munising. Unlike the Major, Walter isn't very anxious to keep the animal.

Mr. Nehmer identifies the donor of the animal as H. H. Perault, manager of a similar store at the Alger County seat, who worked in the local establishment for a time.

Like most things, the series of incidents which culminated in the gift goat, had a small beginning. A year or more ago Nehmer received a tommy cat by express. He retalliated sometime later by sending a tabby and her litter of kittens to Perault.

Then came the goat.

Tigers Really Want 3rd Place; Trucks Gets 19th In Blanking Tribe, 5-0

Cleveland, Sept. 24 (AP)—Just try to bugle those Tigers out of third place now.

The Tigers, with Virgil (Fire) Trucks at his best, defeated the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 0, last night in the opener of a three-game series here.

It gave the Tigers an auspicious sendoff in the series that will determine who takes third place in the American league race. The Tigers now are 2½ games ahead and have five games left, all with the Indians. The last three are in Detroit.

Another of those Hal Newhouse-Bobby Feller battles is in store today.

Tri-County Playoff Tilt

Bark River Host To Stephenson

Bark River, Sept. 24—The Tri-County Baseball league championship will be at stake here at 2 tomorrow afternoon when the second-half champion, Bark River, tangles with the first-half titlist, Stephenson, in the rubber game of a three-game series.

The Barks dropped the opener, 5-3, and then spanked the Steves, 5-1, in the second. Either Ben Kleiman or Ray Menard will hurl, and Phil Brazee will be on hand for relief mound duty.

This is Stephenson's first year in the league. Bark River is the defending champion.

Final Playoffs (All best-of-7 series):
INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
Buffalo 9, Montreal 3. (Buffalo leads 1-0).

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Indianapolis 3, Milwaukee 2. (Indians leads 1-0).

SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION
Nashville 10, Mobile 4. (Nashville leads 2-1).

TEXAS LEAGUE
Tulsa 6, Fort Worth 3. (Fort Worth leads 2-1).

WESTERN LEAGUE
Des Moines 10, Pueblo 5. (Series tied at 2-2).

CENTRAL LEAGUE
Grand Rapids 6, Charleston 5. (Grand Rapids leads 3-1).

Braves Cop Third Straight By 20-6; 'Stique Is Victim

Manistique, Sept. 24 — Gladstone Braves scored a clean-cut victory over Manistique before 2,500 fans at the high school stadium here last night. The score was 20-6.

Stephenson B Stops Powers Eleven, 28-14

First In History For Spalding

Powers-Spalding, Sept. 24 — Powers-Spalding high school played its first football game in the history of the school here yesterday and lost to Stephenson B, 28-14.

But there was considerable honor in defeat. With the exception of the standout playing of "Ace" Blon, who scored all of Stephenson's 28 points, the Powers gridders played their rivals on an even basis and they uncovered a potent passer by the name of John Henderson, halfback.

Henderson passed 22 yards to Ray Wells, little quarterback, for Powers' first tally and he heaved one to Virgil Perket for the extra point. In the third period, he tossed nine yards to Don O'Neil, end, for another counter and then he scampered around for the extra point.

O'Neil was playing end for the first time. Up to that point, he'd been at guard.

Blon scored on a one-yard plunge, a 12-yard end run, another end run and he went 11 yards for Stephenson's fourth touchdown.

He scored all the extra points as well. How? By running, or rushing as the statisticians say. A weak defense was the chief Powers difficulty, a factor that Coach Jerry Anzalone said he planned to iron out quick.

All in all, it was a successful debut.

Rock Swarms Over Pierce Gridders, 58-0

Kulju, Lee Share Scoring Honors

Rock, Sept. 24—As L'il Abner would say: "Oh, happy day."

After losing to Bark River-Harris, 7-0, in their opener—a game that by all the rules of statistics they should have won, the Rock high school gridders bounced back here yesterday to swarm all over John D. Pierce of Marquette, 58-0. It was the most lopsided victory in the history of Rock high school football — young history though it is.

Chiefly responsible for this massacre were Charley Lee and Martin Kulju, who tallied four and three touchdowns respectively.

Bernard LeClaire waltzed to one and Paul Rone pulled the neatest trick of the game, a 70-yard punt.

Manistique, however, was far from a pushover. Coach John Viergever's youngsters tackled hard and robbed Gladstone of two touchdowns by holding them for downs at the goal line.

The Emeralds also had the satisfaction of being the first to score when Howard Hartman, fullback, drove through center, got into the clear and raced 48 yards for a touchdown.

The first quarter was a session of give and take with Gladstone having the advantage of about 20 yards in the exchange of punts.

Manistique's lone touchdown came in the first few minutes of the second quarter, shortly after Gladstone had been forced to punt and lost heavily in the attempt. A few minutes later, as if stung by the setback, Larry LaPlant heaved a long pass to Jim LaLonde and the score was evened. The try for extra point was good. Once more before the quarter ended Gladstone made a serious threat to score, but Manistique recovered the ball on a fumble just as the half ended.

Gladstone's second touchdown came in the third quarter when Norman Jahn was unable to catch a bad pass from center on fourth down. Deep in Manistique territory, LaPlant passed to Schram to score.

Buddy Clark drove over in the fourth quarter from the one-foot line for the final touchdown.

The two teams played on even terms the rest of the game. Manistique staged a late rally.

Manistique was very weak in its pass attack. Many aerial attempts were made, but only one clicked. That one came in the rally near the close of the game.

By contrast, Gladstone's passing attack was particularly effective. Bill Beveridge, Clark and Jim Schram were particularly brilliant for the Braves. Norman Jahn, Howard Hartman, Ray Lancelor and Lloyd Gould shone for Manistique.

Rams Catch Fire To Defeat Lions In Hot 27-24 Tilt

Los Angeles, Sept. 24 (AP)—Deadly passing by Rookie Norman Van Brocklin and place kicking by Bob Waterfield in the fourth quarter gave the Los Angeles Rams a 27-24 victory over the Detroit Lions in a National league battle last night.

Keeping a crowd of 28,077 in roaring excitement, Waterfield booted a field goal from the 46-yard line to win the game with two minutes and 15 seconds to go.

Van Brocklin, passing star from Oregon, stepped into the hero's role midway in the action-packed final period, completing five out of eight passes for 76 yards and a touchdown that tied the count at this stage.

The sudden Ram outburst nullified an equally brilliant fourth period display by Bullet Bill Dudley and Quarterback Fred Enke of the Detroiters.

Dudley's 42-yard field goal tied the score at 17 and Enke passed the Lions into a 24-17 lead, only to see it melt away as Rookie Van Brocklin and the Rams caught fire.

The Rams held a 17-14 lead at halftime.

Detroit, vastly improved over last year, dominated the game into the fourth period.

Detroit's comeback led to the first Ram touchdown. Waterfield twice hitting end Tom Fears, the last for the first touchdown. Detroit's Wally Triplett returned a punt 49 yards to set up the tying tally, Dudley making it from the one.

Waterfield sent the Rams ahead with the first of his two field goals, this one from the 31 yard line, but Enke's brilliant passing—five completions for 76 yards—put Detroit ahead momentarily, 14-10.

Detroit penalties all but gave Los Angeles its next touchdown, and Dudley made it all square with the 42-yard field goal. Enke put the Lions ahead with a 38-yard pass to Cloyce Box.

Then Van Brocklin, making his debut in formal play, hit target for five, 32-14, and the last for 18 to Elroy Hirsch. Waterfield converted and again the score was knotted.

With the clock running out, a Ram pass interception put the ball on the Detroit 34. The Rams got to the 38, and then Waterfield's trusty toe booted the game winning field goal.

Gumpert's 4-Hitter Wins For Chisox, 4-1

Chicago, Sept. 24 (AP)—Randy Gumpert pitched a four-hitter for his thirteenth victory as the Chicago White Sox defeated the St. Louis Browns, 4-1, before a ladies' night turnout of 3,497 persons last night. Catcher Eddie Malone paced the Chicagoans' 12-hit assault with four safeties—a triple, double and two singles.

Barks Defeat Kingsford B In 19-6 Clash

Senior Jim Good Is Standout

Kingsford, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Bark River-Harris eleven kept its slate unsullied to date by clearing the Kingsford B hurdle here yesterday, 19-6.

Thanks to the outstanding work of one Jim Good and fine team play on the part of all the Barks, the visitors erased a 6-0 first-half deficit to score twice in the third quarter and once more in the finale for good measure.

After miffing one touchdown opportunity from the four-yard line in the first half, Bark River found itself in the second and began rolling.

Jim Good passed 15-yards to Nault for a score after a Kingsford fumble was recovered by Bark River on the Kingsford 20. Good scored Bark River's other two touchdowns on line plunges. Likewise, Monsieur Good plunged off tackle once for the extra point. He is a senior.

Central Michiaan Eleven Takes 33-7 Game From Ferris

Big Rapids, Mich., Sept. 24 (AP)—With Isham Williams leading the way, the Central Michigan College Chippewas last night downed the Ferris Institute Bulldogs, 33-7.

Williams passed for two touchdowns and scored two others himself, one on a sneak up the middle and one on a 20-yard run after he picked up his own fumble.

He hit right Halfback Ray Dombrowski with a 30-yard heave for a third touchdown and connected with End George Grodzick, 35-yards away, for a fourth. Left Halfback Joe McGee made the fifth CMC touchdown.

Loren Butler, Bulldog left halfback, cut loose in the third period for the longest run of the evening a 35-yard broken-field job.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Uh, huh! So that's what was fogging up our crystal ball yesterday morning. The insidious figure 13. We couldn't make it out—so we called Soo over Newberry by a point and Ishpeming over Marquette by five points. You know what happened? Newberry beat Soo, 13-0, and Marquette beat Ishpeming, 13-0.

Remember, those were the two traditional battles we were afraid of in yesterday's predictions. Funny thing about traditional games. Anything can happen. And in this case it did. Remember two years ago Gladstone had Escanaba whipped the way only to lose, 26-25, when the Eskymos scored a touchdown in the last few seconds.

But the old crystal ball is holding up pretty well. We said Gladstone 27, Manistique 7. It was Gladstone 20, Manistique 6. We said Menominee 40, Calumet 0. It was Menominee 41, Calumet 0. We said Iron River 34, Niagara 0. It was Iron River 35, Niagara 0. So the percentage is holding its own. Now, if the Eskymos . . . . .

Odds and ends: When Don O'Neil, of Powers, caught a pass for a touchdown in the second half of the Stephenson B-Powers football, it was the first time in his life he ever played end . . . In fact, the first time in his life he ever played organized football . . . A few minutes before he was playing guard . . . Coach Jerry Anzalone asked him during the intermission if he thought he could play . . . "Sure, coach," he said . . . So he did and caught a touchdown pass.

Incidentally, the Powers team averages 135 in the line and 140 in the backfield . . . When the wind is blowing real strong at Powers Jeffery says he has to call off practice . . . Somebody might get blown away . . . They're small but they're mighty.

Yesterday, Rock made 18 first downs and John D. Pierce made three and Rock won, 58-0 . . . Last Saturday afternoon, Escanaba made 17 first downs and Ironwood made three and Escanaba won, 7-6 . . . No comment.

If you want to see the finals of the Tri-Club golf tournament at the Gladstone course tomorrow, you'll have to get up early . . . It's been moved to 10 a. m. from 2 p. m. to avoid conflict with the Manistique-Gladstone inter-club match.

Jerome Deloria is still screaming "Help-help" about Escanaba Bear baseball uniforms . . . The Bears played only one game this season but five uniforms are still missing . . . Jerome would appreciate a visit from Bob L'Houillier, Ed Gauthier, Bob Anderson, Walter Flath and Ray McDonald . . . Just a casual visit—with a uniform.

More Than 1,500,000 Will See College Grid Openers This Afternoon

New York, Sept. 24 (AP)—More than a million and a half fans are expected to turn out today for the first big Saturday of college football.

It's an outpouring such as the sport seldom sees in September, with five games assured of crowds in excess of 50,000 if the weather is favorable.

The biggest flock—a capacity 97,000—is being counted on to attend the meeting of Michigan, the mythical national champion, and Michigan State at Ann Arbor. Michigan officials say 100,000 may finally jam into the enlarged Wolverine stadium.

The day's intercollegiate headlines, Navy against Southern California, is expected to lure 75,000 to this battle of upsets at Los Angeles. The Midshipmen tied Army and the Trojans drew with Notre Dame in late season surprises last year.

Notre Dame's Irish, a notch behind Michigan in the 1948 rankings, are host at South Bend to Indiana. This intra-state feud is a 56,000 sellout.

Southern Methodist's southwest conference champions play Wake Forest, the rugged Deacons from the southern conference, before an anticipated 55,000 at Dallas.

More than 50,000 are figured to watch Harvard and Stanford, two onetime grid greats striving to regain the upper tier, tangle in another intercollegiate feature at Palo Alto, Calif.

Other games expected to draw close to 50,000 are North Carolina vs. North Carolina State at Chapel Hill, North-western vs. Purdue at Evanston, Clemson vs. Rice at Houston and Vanderbilt vs. Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

The feature game on last night's program, Oklahoma against Boston College, was washed out by rain at Boston and was rescheduled for tonight. Oklahoma's Sugar Bowl champs are expected to find a real scrap on their hands.

Action went ahead elsewhere. Boston University rallied with two third period touchdowns to subdue Syracuse before 25,000 on the latter's field, 33-21.

Georgia started slowly but picked up fast to whip Chattanooga at Athens, Ga., 42-6. Washington and Lee upset favored Furman, 27-7. Detroit came from behind twice to repel Tulsa, 20-14, in the Detroiters' first Missouri Valley conference football game.

Nearly 100,000 At ULM-MSC Game

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 24 (AP)—Powerful Michigan and the Spartans of Michigan State college clashed here today in the 42nd renewal of a traditional intra-state rivalry.

Michigan athletic officials predicted a crowd of nearly 100,000 would see the contest. The recently-enlarged Michigan Stadium has a seating capacity of 97,239.

The Wolverines put on the block a record of 23 consecutive victories and a reputation as the nation's No. 1 football team last year.

Probable lineups:
Mich. State Pos. Michigan
John Gilman L E Harry Allis
Don Coleman L T Al Wistert
Ed Bagdon L G L L Heneveld
Bud Gasser C C Bob Erben
Don Mason R G D McCallahan
Petu Fusi R T Al Wahl
Frank Minarik R E I Wisniewski
Bob Ciolek Q B Bill Bartlett
Horace Smith L B C Ortmann
L Chandnois R H Leo Kocski
Frank Waters F B D Kemphorn

Yesterday Stars

Pitching—Virgil Trucks, Tigers recorded his 19th victory as he pitched Detroit to 5-0 victory over Cleveland.

Batting — Ed Malone, White banged out triple, double and two singles to pace Chicago to a 4-1 triumph over St. Louis.

The New York Yankees, showing signs of weariness, today enter the hair of their only road-block to the American league pennant—the Boston Red Sox.

Joe McCarthy's Red Sox, riding a seven-game winning streak, trail the Yanks by two games. The Yanks have lost two out of their last three starts to second division clubs.

McCarthy has his two 20-game winners, Ellis Kinder and Mel Parnell ready for the Yank invasion. Kinder (22-5) is scheduled to pitch the series opener today, with the lefthander Parnell (24-7) to go Sunday.

Lefty Ed Popat (15-8) has

Special Session Not Scheduled

Governor Will Not Call It This Fall

By KENE ALLEMAN
Lansing—No special session of the state legislature will be called by Governor G. Mennen Williams this fall.

Such is the interpretation which the "Michigan Mirror" deduces from exchange of letters between the governor and State Treasurer D. Hale Brake, Auditor General Muri E. Atwood and Controller Robert F. Steadman over a 1950 deficit.

An additional observation might be made: The problem of state finances, caused directly by diversion of 78 per cent of sales tax revenues to public schools and cities and townships, will await the 1950 session of the state legislature.

Here is the record, and you can judge for yourself.

Last May the governor intimated he would call legislators into special session to consider new taxes. Legislators had declined to adopt a levy on corporation profits. A proposed increase in the state gasoline tax had been a long-holed in committee. Controller Steadman, who heads the department of administration, said that legislative appropriations were approximately $50,000,000 higher than the state's anticipated tax revenue.

The legislature's attitude, as represented by G. O. P. leaders, was this: Wait and see. Many Michigan taxpayers are not convinced new taxes are necessary.

To bring the matter to a head, Governor Williams recently sent a letter to the state treasurer, auditor general and controller. He asked for advice: What are you going to do in 1950 "when" the deficit develops?

The controller replied that he would certify whether disbursements were proper in the light of legislative appropriations. The auditor general said he would issue warrants only if cash was on hand. The state treasurer's reply was along these lines: "If" a deficit develops, the treasurer was willing to delay payment of some bills, to utilize certain funds other than trust funds, and to use even earmarked funds temporarily. He said it might be possible to reduce liquor inventory of the state liquor control commission—a step taken by Governor Frank Murphy in 1938 when a similar deficit existed.

Brake suggested that the governor try "economy," rather than more state spending, and thus help reduce any treasury deficit.

It is the contention of Controller Steadman that the treasury deficit will rapidly develop in March, 1950. During February and March the state must divert substantial sums of sales tax revenue to schools, cities and townships. These payments are expected to drain the general fund of its remaining cash.

Thus, history will repeat itself. Eleven years ago the late Frank Murphy was governor. The 1937 session of the legislature had left the state budget $13 millions in the red. By the end of the first fiscal year (June 30, 1937-38) the actual deficit was $9,000,000—about half of what had been anticipated.

The state had met all payrolls (in time. The treasurer had merely borrowed from other funds. Unemployment was high in 1938, due to a recession. Governor Murphy called the legislature into special session to appropriate more money for welfare aid. A sum of $10,000,000 was authorized—in the face of an existing deficit. No new taxes were levied.

Frank Fitzgerald campaigned for economy in state government. He assailed a $9,420,000 increase in the state payroll during the Murphy administration. The CIO sit-down strike had evoked strong popular resentment. Fitzgerald capitalized on this, too. Murphy lost the election and later was sent by President Roosevelt to the Philippines and then to the United States Supreme Court.

If state government could meet payrolls in 1938 with red ink in its books, it seems logical to us that it can do so in 1950.

Why then all this letter writing in September, 1949?

President Truman said he opened the 1950 political campaign with his Labor Day speeches at Pittsburgh and Des Moines. The same might be said about Governor Williams' letters.

The Michigan gubernatorial campaign is already under way.

Who is to blame for the big, bad deficit at Lansing?

Not the voter who want 78 per cent of state sales tax revenue for schools, cities and townships. No, no! The "villain" will be—take

Two-Gun Veteran, 31, Terrorizes 140 In Office At Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 24 (AP)—An army veteran who believes he has tuberculosis rested in a mental hospital today after terrorizing 140 persons in a veterans administration office.

He is William Shimkus, 31, who held a woman VA worker imprisoned in a chair yesterday while Police Sgt. John O'Connor pleaded with him to drop two guns.

Shimkus screamed the VA had fraudulently refused him treatment for TB. He entered the office of Miss Josephine Neibauer, brandished his revolvers and demanded treatment. In an adjoining office the 140 persons stood terrified.

He pinioned Miss Neibauer to her chair while still holding the guns. On O'Connor's promise of treatment Shimkus finally released the woman and dropped his guns. She promptly fainted.

The veteran told police that X-rays of his lungs showed he did not have TB. But he added he was convinced he had the disease after seeing his army discharge papers which noted a small black spot on his left lung.

He was taken to Cook County Psychiatric hospital.

Florida Diver Finds Solid Silver Bars In Galleon Wreckage

Miami, Fla., Sept. 24 (AP)—A recreation director whose hobby is underwater photography today told how he found a group of solid silver bars in the wreckage of a Spanish galleon in the Florida keys.

Arthur McKee, city recreation director of Homestead, Fla., recovered the bars on Memorial Day (May 30) while photographing old cannon.

McKee would not divulge the number of ingots recovered but there were at least three and he admitted "many more than that."

"It was less than a hundred," he added.

Dr. Alexander Wetmore, secretary of the Smithsonian institution in Washington, said the ingots of silver bore authentic Spanish markings and were "more than 200 years old."

The institution purchased one weighing 70 pounds and offered to buy another for $1,000 but McKee wouldn't sell. McKee displayed one bar weighing 60 pounds and another of 80 pounds. The wreckage was found off plantation key, five miles south of the village of Tavernier. McKee could not identify the vessel.

Quebec Plane Smash Blamed On Dynamite Planted By Jeweler

Quebec, Sept. 24 (AP)—Albert Guay, Quebec jeweler, was arraigned today on a murder charge connected with a bomb explosion aboard an airliner which sent his wife and 22 others crashing to their deaths Sept. 9.

Guay, 30, was accused of inducing Mrs. Arthur Pitre, 40, to place a package of explosives aboard the plane. She was arrested yesterday after taking an overdose of sleeping pills. She is recovering. Police said she told them she put the package aboard not knowing what it contained.

The jeweler was charged specifically with the slaying of his wife, referred to by the court clerk by her maiden name, Rita Morel. Mrs. Pitre was under detention in her own apartment. Her detention ended a two-week hunt for the "mystery woman" who delivered a delicately-handled package to the Canadian

Instructor Commits Suicide In Hospital; Visitor Brings Gun

Quakertown, Pa., Sept. 24 (AP)—Police searched today for a visitor they said brought a gun to the hospital room of a University of Pennsylvania instructor who was found fatally shot in his bed.

The instructor, 24-year-old George W. Jarrett, died of a bullet wound in his right temple early yesterday as he lay in Quakertown hospital with a broken right leg.

Coroner J. Alfred Rigby reported Jarrett's death as a suicide.

But Police Chief George Rapp said he is seeking a visitor who left a suitcase, containing a luger pistol, in Jarrett's room. He said the pistol was beside Jarrett on the hospital bed when nurses discovered the victim with a bullet wound in his right temple.

Jarrett had been taken to the hospital after an automobile crash on the Bethlehem Pike in which he and a Philadelphia girl, Theresa McCracken, 20, were injured. Another couple in the car was not injured.

Rapp said Jarrett was alone in a room at the hospital with his broken leg in a cast which was suspended by a traction apparatus of weights and pulleys.

encouraging.

One American source said Vishinsky proposed nothing that was not already possible in the United Nations lineup itself, but it carried out Russia's long-standing idea that big powers should guide and direct the efforts of other nations.

There was some feeling that peace planning was carried into the chief world body the peace offensive congresses held with strong Russian approval in Paris, Prague and Mexico in the last year.

Meanwhile one Saturday session was ordered in line with Assembly President Carlos Romulo's hurry-up program to get the assembly down to work on atomic energy reports, Korean unification and the Balkans-Greek conflicts.

Five countries were on today's policy speech program—Poland, Chile, Pakistan, Ethiopia and White Russia.

Monday's closing debates called for at least 14 countries to speak, with Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia—now opposing powers in a common front—leading off. Others included Greece, Canada, Mexico, the Ukraine, Argentina and Israel.

After the conclusion of general debate next week the assembly returns to Lake Success for the long Grind of work in the seventh session committees.

He said many of these prisoners have been executed on various pretexts and few would ever leave alive.)

Near Zlatoust, south of Cheliabinsk, The Ural atomic laboratories here are served by high power lines drawn from the most powerful generators in the Ural industrial network. Zlatoust is the site of the oldest arms manufacturing center in Russia, founded by Peter the Great. It is equipped with American machinery. According to credible reports, Prof. Peter Kapitzka, the famous British-Russian scientist, is alive and working in this plant. He was detained in Russia while on a visit before the war.

At Tashkent, in Uzbekistan, This is headquarters for the leading Russian atomic physicist, Professor Joffe, who has been conducting experiments in harnessing solar energy. The Soviet Academy of Science was said to have received a secret report that Professor Joffe succeeded in smashing the atom in 1937.

These locations were given me by a former assistant commissar of the Ural tank industry. Once a Comrade bigwig in Romania and an intimate friend of Anna Pauker, my informant went to Russia in 1937. During the war he became one of the top managers of the Cheliabinsk tractor plant, rising to first assistant to Khesin, commissar of the tractor industry. He escaped to Western Europe in 1947.

Detroit Red Cross Joins In Fund Drive; May Lose Charter

Pittsburgh, Sept. 24 (AP)—The head of the American Red Cross, who has resigned effective Oct. 1, says he's going to recommend that the charter of the organization's Detroit chapter be revoked.

National Chairman Basil O'Connor told a press conference here yesterday that the move is prompted by the Detroit group's plan to take part in joint fund-raising campaigns.

A Red Cross ruling forbids such activities.

In Detroit, Chapter Chairman Henry T. Ewald commented: "Our position remaining unchanged."

Ewald said he would attend a special meeting of the executive committee of the ARC board of governors next Thursday in Washington when O'Connor will recommend lifting the Detroit charter. Other members of the Detroit chapter also will attend.

SPIES STUDY SECRETS
Washington, Sept. 24 (AP)—Congressional spies believe the Russians have had "every opportunity" to study U. S. atomic data, and that they Communists may be trying to infiltrate the government even now.

Their statements to that effect yesterday came as President Truman was announcing a successful atomic explosion in Russia, and while the American Legion was urging Congress to crack down on foreign agents in this country.

In the atomic field, the House un-American Activities Committee said it soon will release a report on its spy investigations which will prove that "the Russians have had every opportunity to avail themselves of information on nuclear energy" from this country.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga.) said that for months his group has had information "that if the Russians haven't got the atomic bomb, they're just plain dumb."

Constable At Amasa Hears He Escaped Death From Convicts

Iron Mountain, Mich., Sept. 24 (AP)—Village Constable Gerald Parkins of Amasa, Mich., today had his desire to company to thank for being alive, according to George Gennara of Caspian.

Gennara was kidnapped early this week by two convicts who escaped on Labor Day from Northern Michigan prison at Marquette. They forced him to drive them through Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

He said here Friday that the fugitives told him—before he managed to escape—that they originally had planned to kidnap Parkins in order to get his gun and car, and then kill him.

After shadowing the constable for hours but never finding him alone, they gave up and abducted the Caspian salesman instead, Gennara said. He added that the desperadoes, for whom police are still searching, had a roll of bills "big enough to choke an ox."

The fugitives were identified as Henry Shelton, 40, and Sam Leib, 36, both lifers. Leib was convicted for a Macomb county murder and Shelton for the robbery of a bank at Kaleva.

Offer Course In Appraising

Classes Will Open Here Sept. 27

The Upper Peninsula Board of Realtors and the University of Michigan extension service will offer a special course in real estate appraising, starting Sept. 27, and continuing for eight weeks. Classes will be held alternately in the Ludington hotel in Escanaba and the Gravelaet high school in Marquette. The first meeting will be in Escanaba Sept. 27, starting at 1 p. m.

The course is a follow-up to that given last year, a highly successful course in which 55 persons were enrolled. This year each session will be longer but will be held once each two weeks, rather than weekly. This is expected to encourage people from more distant points to enroll, since the trips to Marquette or Escanaba will be made less often.

Jack Witkowski, instructor of the course, is a competent appraiser and a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers. Half of each session will be devoted to lecture and discussion, and the remainder to practice work in the field on actual real estate properties.

The course is open to anyone who wishes to take it. No previous work in appraising is necessary. The course is expected to be of special interest to real estate men, bankers, contractors, insurance men, township supervisors and other local assessors.

The eight sessions will meet twice a month for four hours each. The registration fee for each semester of appraising is $15. Persons may attend the first session without obligation but all registrations should be completed before the second session.

... as the Devil hates Holy Water!

"The Devil! Holy Water! Dark Age superstitions, are they not?"

"Hardly, my friend. The Bible relates the fall of Lucifer and the temptations of Christ by the Devil; and Holy Water's use by the Church can be traced back to about the second century—quite a bit earlier than the period which some people choose to term the Dark Ages."

"But why water? Why holy?"

"The water is ordinary water with a bit of salt in it. Water is symbolic of cleansing. Salt is a symbol of preservation from corruption. This combination has no power of its own, but when blessed by a priest who represents Holy Mother Church, it becomes holy."

"To understand this you must recall that Christ while on earth gave to the Apostles and their successors many of His own divine powers to be used only through Him—that is, the washing away of original sin through Baptism, the forgiveness of actual sin through Confession, the changing of the substance of bread and wine to the substance of His own Divine Body and Blood—and four other sacraments."

"In a similar manner God gave to His Church the right and power to bless in His name inanimate objects which, although powerless in themselves, identify the individual's prayers (when said with faith and devotion) with the prayers of the entire Church.

"At the entrance of every Catholic church there is one or more Holy Water Fountains. Within the thresholds of countless Catholic bedrooms are also Holy Water Fountains. To the Catholic, one of the most common and most powerful forms of prayer is to dip his fingers into the Holy Water, make the Sign of the Cross and thus identify his individual prayers with those of the entire Church for the welfare of his own soul, his neighbor's soul, or the souls in Purgatory."

"A piece of white cloth has in itself no power; but when in the heat of battle it is raised on high it has the power, recognized by all nations, to silence the suns, while emissaries are sent to bargain for peace. If mere cloth has this man-given power, is it not logical to believe that water can be given the power of especial prayer, when blessed by God through His Church?"

As darkness hates light, as error hates truth, as malignity hates sanctity—so the Devil hates Holy Water.

If it's anything Catholic, ask a Catholic!

LUCKMAN-LUJACK VS. Jacobs-Heath

New York, Sept. 24 (AP)—The National Football league and All-America conference each has two games listed for tomorrow and indications point to the usual passing circus.

Foremost of these figures to be the traditional struggle between the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers at Green Bay. It will be the 62nd meeting between the heated rivals. The Bears hold a 34-22 edge in the league's oldest series. Five games resulted in ties.

The Packers will unveil their touted quarterback, Stan Heath, collegiate passing sensation from Nevada.

Heath, along with Indian Jack Jacobs, will be pitted against the most formidable one-two passing punch in the game today—Sid Luckman and Johnny Lujack. The Bears will introduce a rookie quarterback, George Blanda, University of Kentucky ace.

Automatic Otto Graham and Y. A. Tittle will cross right arms in a conference game at Baltimore where the champion Cleveland Browns tangle with the stumbling Baltimore Colts.

Another AAC contest finds Frankie Albert, San Francisco's southpaw slinger, bumping with Buffalo's George Ratterman at Buffalo.

The New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers collide in the other National league game.

Last night the Los Angeles Rams nipped the Detroit Lions, 27 to 24, in an NFL struggle at Los Angeles.
